"Minutemen" Presented With Stand Of Colors, Purse; War Bond Parade

Adams county expressed its appreciation of the State Guard unit, known as the "Minutemen," when a stand of colors, American and Pennsylvania flags were presented to the organization at impressive ceremonies in center square Thursday evening.

In addition to the stand of colors, made possible through donations from Adams county, the unit was presented with a purse with which to purchase additional equipment and supplies.

The exercises followed a parade of several county community units, including bands and fire apparatus, to commemorate the "Over the Top" success of the Third War Bond drive.

Air Corps Parades
Following the "victory bond drive" parade the ceremonies attending the presentation of the colors to the "Minutemen" opened.

The 55th College Training Detachment of the Army Air Corps at Gettysburg College, entered the square from York street, circled the oval and filled three sections of the square.

A squad of Naval Air Cadets from Mt. St. Mary's college entered the square from Baltimore street and took up positions near the speakers' stand.

Then came the "Minutemen" headed by Captain C. Arthur Brame.

The Blue and Gray band of Gettysburg preceded the unit into the square. The band took up position next to the rostrum and the Minutemen circled the oval and massed in front of the speakers' stand.

Dr. Wentz Speaks

Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, president of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary gave the address of presentation of the colors to the county company of the State Guard Reserve.

Captain C. Arthur Brame pledged the State Guard Reserve unit to do its utmost for service to the county and nation in its acceptance of the flags for the organization.

As Doctor Wentz concluded his address the special color guard of representatives of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Spanish War Veterans and Sons of Veterans, including Clyde D. Berger, Howard Sheffer, David Tawney and John A. Zimmerman, stepped forward and turned the flags over to the color guard from the State Guard unit.

War Bond Parade

The festivities began at 7:30 o'clock with the war bond drive parade marching from the Meade school east on Chambersburg street to the square and then north on Carlisle street, headed by LeRoy H. Winebrenner, marshal. Janice Sachs and Jane Geiselman led the parade with a huge banner noting, "Adams County's Third War Loan Quota $2,134,100; total sales $2,306,485." During the exercises at the platform in center square the two Gettysburg girls held the banner in front of the platform.

The parade included the Biglerville high school cheer leaders and band; Troop 79, Boy Scouts, of Gettysburg, led by Scoutmaster Jack Cessna; Biglerville fire truck; Bendersville troop of Boy Scouts; Union fire company truck of Bendersville; York Springs high school band; the York Springs fire company truck (Please Turn to Page 7)

Dr. A. R. Wentz Urges Guard To Preserve Honor Flags

The presentation address delivered by Dr. A. R. Wentz, president of the Lutheran Theological seminary Thursday evening at special exercises in the square at which a stand of colors was given the county unit of the State Guard Reserve follows:

"When we place in your hands this evening these beautiful banners of the state and the nation, this town of Gettysburg and this county of Adams entrust you with the most sacred jewels they possess.

"These are the emblems of our richest heritage from the past, the symbols of our noblest possession in the present, the forebears of our fondest hopes for the future.

"We commit them to you in firm confidence that you will guard them well, that you will preserve them pure and unsullied, safe from the clutches of all enemies within or without, and that you will keep them constantly floating in the breeze, high and lifted up far above all sordid or selfish ambition, a guiding beacon for all who cherish the qualities of loyalty and bravery and sacrifice and freedom.

Emblems of Faith

"These are the emblems of our most cherished possessions. They stand for our inmost heart and home, our faith and our church, our schools, our constituted government, our freedom, our happiness, our very lives. We are grateful to you for your willingness to carry these emblems and to guard them. And we present them to you in full assurance that they are in good and trustworthy hands.

"Now, as we present you with these colors, let us remind you of three great facts.

"First, when you march under these colors of state and nation, you of the Adams county unit march forward in a great tradition. More than one in generations gone by, this public square of Gettysburg, which may be regarded as the civic center of Adams county, has filled with people and thrilled with emotion. ## MISS EDWARDS WEDS OFFICER

Miss Kathleen R. Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Edwards, Harrisburg road, and Lieutenant Francis J. Dixon, son of Mrs. Catherine Dixon, Chicago, were united in marriage Monday evening at 9:30 p. m. at St. Katherine of Sienna church, Baltimore, by the Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Davies.

The couple was attended by Miss Georgie J. Vacer and Lieutenant Charles Kulp. Also present were Capt. and Mrs. William Richards, Lieutenant and Mrs. Lawrence Browne and Lieutenant Edward Culloton. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the Chesapeake lounge of the Emerson hotel, Baltimore.

The bride was attired in a slate blue suit with dark brown accessories and wore a corsage of orchids. She was graduated from Gettysburg high school in 1939 and attended the business administration school of the University of South Carolina for a short time. For the last year she has been employed as secretary to Dr. Floyd E. Shaffer, chief of medical staff, Bethlehem Steel company, Baltimore.

Lieutenant Dixon attended Catholic schools in Chicago, Ill., and graduated from the University of Illinois in 1937. He has served at various army posts in the United States and is now stationed at Fort George G. Meade, from which he expects to leave for duty overseas within the next two weeks.

The young couple is at home at 814 Cathedral street, Baltimore.

Receives Letter From Prisoner-Son

Mrs. Clara Weaver Kuhn, New Oxford, received a letter from her son, Paul L. Kuhn, who has been overseas for some time and who, last spring, was reported a prisoner of the Nazis. The letter was dated May 23, 1943, and states that he is well. No other word has been had from the service man for nearly a year although members of his family communicate with him through the Red Cross as often as permitted.

GIVE DETAILS FOR OBTAINING RATION BOOKS

To the more than 300 public school teachers in Adams county today went a letter from the county war price and rationing board outlining details of the teacher-participation in the distribution of War Ration Book No. 4.

To the approximately 15,000 county citizens who are expected to go to their nearest school house next Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday to secure their family's new ration books went the word that, "There will be nothing difficult about it—you will receive your new rationing books in the same way you got Rationing Book No. 2."

Donald P. McPherson, Jr., Esq., chairman of the county rationing board, explained that only one member of a family will have to go to the schools for the family's supply of books.

How to Get Book

If mother decides to obtain the books, she will first secure all of the Ration Books Number 3 issued to her family. Then she will ascertain whether the front cover of Book 3 has been properly filled out for each member of the family. On the front cover of Book 3 there are spaces for the name, address, age, weight, sex, height, and signature of the person to which the book was issued. When the books were sent from Philadelphia to residents of this area only the name and address will be filled in, the remaining spaces being left blank. If the spaces have not been filled in, mother will see that every member of the family fills in the covers and then will take all of the family's rationing books (No. 3) with her when she goes to the nearest school house.

At the school house the teachers will ask mother to fill out a short form for application for Book No. 4. All that has to be filled out on the application are the first name and middle initial, last name, age, and sex of the various members of the family for whom mother is applying. Then mother signs the form and is given the number of rationing books No. 4 required.

Optional Pledges

The teacher will show mother a pledge which reads, "To do my part on the home front . . . to help distribute rationed goods fairly . . . to help hold down the cost of living." (Please Turn to Page 7)

COEDS BEGIN BOND RALLY

Emmitsburg, Oct. 22—A War bond rally held today in DePaul Auditorium, St. Joseph's College, inaugurated a bond and stamp drive, which is being sponsored by the student body for the benefit of war relief.

A parade of colors followed by the salute to the flag, officially opened the drive. Miss Margaret Brethaupt, master of ceremonies, introduced the guest speaker, Lt. Raymond Richards, U. S. N. R., now stationed at Mt. St. Mary's college. Lt. Richards urged the students to work to capacity now to bring about a quicker victory and to secure a safer peace.

The Class of '44 dressed in red, white and blue, added a touch of humor to the occasion by singing "Jolly Molly Pitcher," which part was portrayed by Miss Judy Lieb, of Sunbury.

Miss Brethaupt summarized the campaign and announced that the first goal to be reached, November 7, is a mechanical potato peeler. Last year the Class of '46 in a war bond drive realized $20,000, for which amount they were able to purchase two jeeps for the armed forces.

Committee chairmen appointed for the year are: Miss Elizabeth Hiemenz, Lancaster, Pa., general chairman; Miss Marie Flanagan, Bridgeport, Conn., special events; Miss Elizabeth Sullivan, Pottsville, Pa., booth and sales; Miss Jane Nossell, Baltimore, publicity; Miss Helen Anderson, West Point, Va., business.

Registration Plans Here

Gettysburg elementary school buildings will omit regular sessions next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday while residents register for Ration Book No. 4. The local high school's schedule will not be affected, Superintendent of Schools L. C. Keefe announced today.

The three elementary buildings will be open each day from 9 a. m. to 12, 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. and from 7 to 8:30 p. m. to receive an estimated 6,000 applications. Books will have to be issued at the rate of about 45 to 50 per hour if the job is to be completed in the allotted hours, the superintendent said.

Residents are asked to register at their nearest elementary school building. They must bring Book 3 along with its blanks properly filled in. School principals will act as site administrators.

DISCUSSION OF YOUTH'S NEEDS BEGUN BY GROUP

The old question of which exerts the greater force in the development of a child, heredity or environment, bobbed up Thursday evening in the first of a series of discussions being conducted on the topic "Youth in a World at War" under the sponsorship of the Adams County Welfare committee.

Dr. Bertha Paulsen, Seminary faculty member who is conducting the lecture-discussion series, declared that no sociologist can answer the question except to say that they exert equal influences. "Heredity furnishes the material with which environment works," she pointed out.

Conducting the first evening lecture in Christ Lutheran Sunday school room, Doctor Paulsen discussed the sub-topic of "Youth in the Family" and predicted a great increase of social case work in home problems after this war.

"Child problems," she said, "often turn out to be the result of marriage problems within the home which have caused serious maladjustments in the children. Those that are not too complex often can be worked out by the parents themselves possibly with the aid of a social worker, minister, psychiatrist or physician by getting the parents to talk about their problems and analyze their situations."

Three More Sessions

Declaring that no two situations are identical and that no solution can be an all-purpose pattern, Doctor Paulsen cited specific case studies illustrating maladjustments in children resulting from insecurity, a sense of inadequacy, introversion or lack of an appreciation of authority.

Childhood maladjustments are the cause of a considerable amount of certain types of insanity in later life. (Please Turn to Page 2)

Max Sherman Acts As Company Athletic Instructor In Navy

Max Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mares Sherman, East Middle street, who has completed "boot" training at the U. S. Naval training center at Great Lakes, Illinois, is spending a leave with his parents here before returning to the Great Lakes center next Thursday. He has been recommended for and expects to be transferred to a gunnery school after his return.

A top-ranking athlete at high school here Sherman continued with his athletic endeavors at Great Lakes, representing his company in the 175 pound boxing class, acting as athletic instructor for his company in basketball, boxing and wrestling and organizing a basketball team from his company to engage in tournament play. As a result of his endeavors he was made a platoon leader and received first class rating stripes during his boot training.

REPORT $1,000 CONTRIBUTED TO WAR FUND HERE

The Adams County War Funds' "flying squadron committee" comprising Chairman Paul A. Kinsey and USO Chairman Dean W. E. Tilberg spoke today before employees of the C. H. Musselman plant in Gardners and then met with Mrs. Charles Yost, Biglerville chairman, and Mrs. Lloyd W. Kuhn, Bendersville chairman, to complete organization of the War Fund committee in those areas.

The two will continue their visits to various sections of the county during the remainder of the week and early next week.

Over $1,000 has been collected so far, leaders of the War Fund—designated to raise $28,770 in Adams county for 17 national war assistance organizations—said today, although that amount has not been turned in to the treasurer, Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler. The War Fund heads based their estimate on reports of solicitors made informally Thursday and today.

Need Assistance

"The backing of everyone in Adams county is needed if we are to reach our goal," Mr. Kinsey said today. "We cannot allow our soldiers and sailors to be left without some entertainment, and our contributions to the War Fund will guarantee continuance of war-cared agencies.

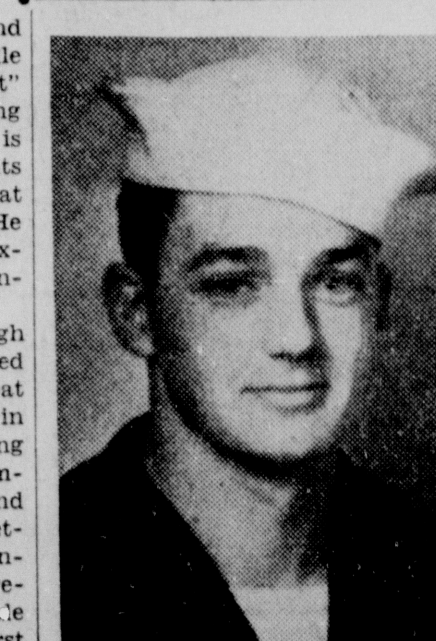

"We cannot allow any of the thousands and thousands of refugee children and older people to starve, or freeze while we have the sustenance to feed and clothe them. We cannot withhold our contributions which will bring medical supplies to our gallant allies.

"The Russians have lost millions of men in the battle against Nazism. They are fighting our fight—we cannot afford not to give a little to supply them with medical supplies. The Chinese have been fighting our battle for years against the Japanese. We need only to give to the War Fund to give them food and other supplies that they need as desperately as the arms the nation is supplying them if they are to survive.

"We cannot allow the assistance being given refugee children in the United States to be curtailed because we failed to contribute a few dollars. Nor can we, in good conscience, allow relief to the Greeks, Dutch, Norwegians, Poles and our other allies, to stop because we failed to give up the price of one good meal. The Greeks and the others are starving, there is no doubt about that. The Germans are determined to starve those whom they oppose—we should be just as determined that they shall not starve," Mr. Kinsey said.

TO TRAIN AS OFFICER

Atlee Robert, seaman first class and son of Quintin D. Robert of near Littlestown, returned last week from an eight-week tour of duty in Bermuda to report for training at the U. S. Midshipmen's school at John Jay Hall, Columbia university. He will start training there November 2. He has been in the Navy since November of last year.

TO DISTRIBUTE CALVES TO 4-H CLUB ON NOV. 6

Sixty-four calves have been purchased by the Adams county 4-H Baby Beef committee for the 1944 Baby Beef clubs, it was announced today by Russell F. Mollenauer, assistant county farm agent.

The calves, secured through Samuel Zug, manager of the Lancaster Livestock Producers' Cooperative Association, are now being kept on the farm of A. B. C. Williams, York Springs. The best calves will be selected from the 64 for the use of the club members in order to insure a uniform lot of choice quality calves for every member, it was stated. The balance of the calves will be fed by one of the club's local leaders. The members should be able to start off this year with better calves than usual at a price that will make it possible for them to expect a reasonable profit for their project, Mr. Mollenauer said.

To Feed Calves a Year

Tentative plans have been made to distribute calves to the 1944 club members Saturday, November 6, when each boy and girl enrolled in the club will draw for a calf. The members will feed the calves until next December when baby beef club members from the southeastern counties will exhibit their animals at the Lancaster roundup and sale. Last year some of the local calves sold for as high as 20 cents a pound.

The club members of each community will hold monthly meetings under the supervision of their local leader and the county agent's office. Instruction in the care, feeding and management of the calves is given at the meetings.

Boys and girls in Adams county between 10 and 20 years of age inclusive were urged today by Mr. Mollenauer to become members of the Baby Beef club because "any" (Please Turn to Page 7)

Keep Advancing With Air Blows From Big Ships

By NOLAND NORGAARD

Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Oct. 22 (AP)—Pursuing the retreating enemy too close to permit him to establish new defense positions, American troops of the Fifth Army captured the important road junction town of Alife in a 10-mile advance and beat off a furious German counter-attack, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said today.

The town of Piedimonte D'Alife near Alife also fell before the American assault while on the Fifth Army's left flank British troops beat off a massive German attack aimed at Cancellio on the north bank of the Volturno eight miles in from the sea.

Allied fighters and fighter-bombers swept over the battle area in force, bombing and machinegunning.

Yank Airmen Help Slav Guerrillas

American Warhawks, supporting the operations of Yugoslav partisans, intercepted a formation of six German Stukas southeast of Zara and shot down every one of them in the first air battle by Americans to stop the murderous and heretofore unopposed German bombing attacks on Yugoslav villages.

For good measure, the Warhawks also found three small enemy ships off the Yugoslav coast and hit them all with bombs, and attacked the harbor of Split where they set a 75-foot coastal vessel ablaze.

Still other American planes attacked shipping in Albanian waters, and Lightnings completed the day's activity over the Balkans by returning to Skopje in Yugoslavia to bomb that key railway junction between Belgrade and Athens.

The violent German counterattacks both at Alife and Cancellio obviously were designed to disrupt Allied plans for close pursuit of their foe and to give the Germans more time to withdraw their major forces to their new Mondragone-Mt. Massico-Venafro line.

But the Germans found Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army troops ready and waiting.

GARAGEMEN ARE INSTRUCTED ON NEW INSPECTION

More than 100 county automobile dealers and repairmen attended a meeting Thursday evening at the state highway garage on the Fairfield road held in cooperation with the state's safety program and in preparation for the next campaign for motor vehicle inspections which opens November 1.

The meeting here was one of a series of 44 being held throughout the state under the sponsorship of the Department of Revenue for the purpose of impressing the auto industry with the importance of its role in the war effort—the job of keeping present transportation rolling.

J. William Kendelehr, Jr., state highway maintenance superintendent for Adams county, acted as chairman of the meeting. Ed Ploss, of Philadelphia, represented the automotive industry and Private R. B. Hoke the state police.

Three Speakers

Edward Flynn represented the Department of Revenue and declared in his address to the garagemen:

"While the gasoline and rubber situations are indeed serious, they almost fade into insignificance compared to the prospects of shortages of all kinds of vehicles within the near future. The struggle to keep our now existing vehicles on the road is going to reach a peak very shortly, and this condition will probably exist for several years."

Ploss urged "early inspections." Stations were asked to budget their time, and suggest that their customers do likewise. He stressed the importance of a careful check on wheel alignment as a safety measure.

Private Hoke explained that it is the job of the police to supervise station activities; assist garage men in connection with periodic inspections; see that the regulations are adhered to and assist in eliminating the "chiseler."

Down 16 Planes

With the capture of Alife, the Americans were in position to continue the thrust along both banks of the Volturno toward Venafro, 18 airplane miles to the northwest where the Germans are fortifying their mountain line overlooking the roads to Rome.

Meanwhile Gen. Sir. Bernard L. Montgomery's Eighth Army of British, Canadians and Indians consolidated their positions in the eastern sectors of the trans-penninsula line and sent patrols thrusting into enemy territory. These met with what was officially termed "varying resistance."

The air war was raised to a suddenly-increased tempo and a total of 16 enemy planes were knocked down in air combats.

Marshal Albert Kesselring's battered Air Force sent out 15 fighters to battle B-26 Marauders which attacked the railway bridge at Acquapendente, 55 miles north of Rome. A Lightning escort promptly shot down six of the enemy.

Devastating Raids

The tactical air force's medium and light bombers made a heavy and concentrated raid on the Germans in the vicinity of Cassino, 45 miles northwest of Naples, as a part of the day and night hammering of the battle front area.

Warhawks and Kittyhawks, sweeping up and down the east coast: Fired some barges at San Benedetto, 38 miles north of Pescara, and RAF Wellingtons topped off the aerial barrage by a bomb cascade on the railway at Giulianova, 29 miles north of Pescara.

Meanwhile, Airacobras and Beaufighters protecting an Allied convoy off the North African coast yesterday shot down four German bombers.

The headquarters bulletin said that the British Eighth Army had consolidated its positions on the Eastern part of the line stretching across the peninsula, in a flanking position against the Venafro anchor of the proposed German Massico ridge line north of the Volturno valley.

COUPLE TO WED

A marriage license was issued today at the court house to Russell George Neiderer, U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mrs. Stella F. Neiderer, Hanover R. 3, and Rita Mary Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Small, Hanover.

MENACE FROM CHINESE CIVIL WAR SUBSIDES

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (Associated Press War Analyst)

The best news to come out of China in a blue-moon is the assurance from Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's government that a settlement of its quarrel with the Chinese Communists is in prospect—and that there will be no civil war! Such a peace would be a godsend not only to China but to the United Nations. To understand the full import of this you must know that the evil spirit of fratricidal strife long has been hanging over that war-torn country. When I was in Chungking early this year observers could see only one outcome—a terrible civil war which would come at the end of the Chino-Jap struggle, and might break out before then.

Background for this gloomy view was the fact that there had been many bloody outbursts in the protracted political strife between General Chiang's one-party (Kuomintang) government and the Communists who have been fighting for recognition of their party. The dangers have been multiplied by the peculiar circumstance that the Chinese armed forces have included several strong Communist armies under their own generals, an agreement having been made to bury the political hatchet temporarily in interests of the war effort against the Japs. The latest rupture in the "United Front" was only last month when the provincial authorities of Shantung charged that Communist forces attacked the state police.

A Cultured Man Now comes Chungking's prediction that peace is in sight. More to the point, Generalissimo Chiang has appointed two Communist leaders, General Chou En-Lai and Tng Pi-Wu, to a committee of sixty which has been assigned to do the groundwork for a constitutional government. General Chou is out-ranked in the Communist party only by General Mao Tse-Tung, Communist Army Commander. Of course, there's still a load of dynamite in the situation, but the Chinese home-front seems to have made a fair start in pulling out of a nasty position.

I had the privilege of meeting General Chou, who was stationed in Chungking as liaison between the Communists and the government. He assured me that his party wasn't working to supplant the government but merely sought recognition along with the Kuomintang. He declared there was no link with Moscow.

My guess is that Chou will play a highly important role, and if that's so it is a happy circumstance that he and Chiang Kai-Shek are friends. Chou is a cultured man of wide education. He looks to be in his sunny forties. He has a striking personality and incidentally is one of the handsomest Chinese I've encountered.

Seeks Political Peace The general comes of an aristocratic official family. He began his revolutionary career when a youth in school in Tientsin. Later he studied in France, and became one of the earliest members of the Chinese Communist party. When Generalissimo Chiang was kidnapped by rebels in Sian in 1936 it was General Chou who was instrumental in securing his release. Later Chou negotiated for the reconstruction of the united political front on an anti-Japanese basis.

My visit with General Chou was one of those things you read about in mystery stories. A guide lead me through the by-ways of ancient Chungking until we came to a little settlement buried in the heart of the city. After negotiating numerous narrow passages we finally arrived at a great, gloomy house which was even more spooky than the district in which it was hidden.

Chou's uniformed sentries were all about the place. A smiling but cautious secretary looked us over well before carrying word of our arrival to his chief. After a considerable wait the general suddenly slipped into the room from nowhere, like a shadow. It was a theatrical setting and a theatrical entrance, but the general fitted the scene perfectly. It must be added that he has to take precautions.

We drank innumerable glasses of hot tea and talked far into the night, covering a wide field. The general gave the impression that he sought political peace for China.

life, it was pointed out. While certain qualities of a child such as alertness and temperament are inherited, maladjustments are "not due with necessity to inherited factors." Doctor Paulsen said.

A number of the 25 members of the class mentioned cases of maladjustments in children and they were discussed by the group leader.

Next Thursday the subject will be "Youth in School." On subsequent Thursdays the subjects will be "Adolescent Conflicts" and "Youth in the Community."

EXPLAIN MEAT RATION RULES FOR FARMERS

Where a farm owner lives in a city, or any place other than a farm, he must give up ration points for the meat he consumes off the farm, although he need not necessarily pay for it in cash, it is stressed by the district OPA office in a comprehensive interpretation of regulations governing the sale, transfer or consumption of meat.

However, a farmer and his family and hired help may consume meat raised on any farm he owns or operates, and may transfer meat from one of his farms to another to provide food for members of the household, living on that farm, without giving up ration points, under the regulations.

May "Lend" Meat

In some farm communities it has been the practice of a group of families to take turns in doing their farm slaughtering, and in this way providing each other with a continuous supply of fresh meat. Such loans may be continued, OPA states, provided that no one farmer lends more than 400 pounds of beef and veal together, and 150 pounds of other meats, in addition to 25 pounds of other rationed foods in any one calendar year.

Meat "loaned" under this provision need not be returned in kind, but must be replaced by food worth the same number of points and rationed under the meats and fats order.

A farmer who acquires meat from a custom slaughterer without surrendering ration points, must provide the slaughterer with a certification intended to establish the fact that the meat he acquires is primarily for food for his family and was produced from livestock raised on the farm.

Must Collect Points

A farmer who sells or transfers any meat produced from livestock raised on his farm, whether he slaughtered the animal himself or had it custom-slaughtered, must collect ration points for every sale or transfer he makes. Ration stamps or certificates collected for such sales are turned in to local Ration Boards once during each month in which a sale is made, along with a report of the farmer's slaughtering and sales operations.

The report form (OPA R-1609), used by the small farmer who produced and sold less than $2,000 worth of meat or other rationed food in any report period since January, 1942, is extremely simple and copies are available both at local Ration Boards and at County War Boards of the Department of Agriculture.

A farmer who sells meat directly to a consumer may accept red stamps not yet valid for other purchases. The purpose of this provision, OPA explains, is to make it possible for the farmer to sell larger cuts of meat than consumers would ordinarily be able to buy with only currently valid meat stamps.

NAZI PRISONERS LIKE POTATOES

Pittsburgh, Oct. 22 (AP)—Bread and potatoes constitute the "favorite food plate special" of some of the German prisoners in this country.

Pretty, dark-haired Lieut. Mary Streidl, head dietician of the Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., station hospital, where a number of Nazi prisoners are hospitalized, said today that while other food items were offered:

"They are really happy if they can pile the bread and potatoes on their plates."

In an interview at the war conference of the American Dietetic Association, she said the prisoners received adequate diets—including plenty of non-rationed foods — and that captured German cooks preparing the food not only featured a few native dishes such as sauerkraut, but also did strange things with certain orthodox items.

For example, she said, they took ready-made cole slaw—and cooked it instead of serving it cold.

IGNORING OPA, STATE ORDERS MILK PRICES UP

Harrisburg, Oct. 22 (AP)—The state Milk Control commission decided today to order milk prices increased in 13 marketing areas of Pennsylvania, effective November 1, without regard to the federal government.

Chairman John M. McKee said that recent orders—held up by the federal Office of Price Administration—increasing the producer price about 90 cents a hundredweight and the retail price two and three cents a quart, were amended making "no provision for approval by any other agency."

"Following reports from all parts of the state to the effect that milk production is falling off seriously and the demand for milk continuing at unprecedented levels" a commission statement said, a series of recent orders "providing substantial price increases to dairy farms for milk, have been amended to become effective November 1, 1943. These orders previously were issued to become effective October 1 but they did not become operative because of lack of favorable action by the federal authorities."

The orders covered the entire state, except Philadelphia and suburban Philadelphia.

HIGH ELEVEN SET FOR TILT WITH TROJANS

The Gettysburg high school eleven will journey to foreign soil for the final time this season Saturday afternoon when the Chambersburg high gridders will be met at Chambersburg. The game is slated to start at 2:30 o'clock.

Showing perhaps their best form of the season during drills this week, the Maroons are determined to make a good showing against the highly favored Trojan outfit.

Coach Mel Dry was forced to hold reduced drills this week when he worked with a squad of but 18 men and scrimmages were somewhat hampered by the inability to marshal full teams.

One change may be made in the Maroons' starting lineup. William Sperry is a likely starter at center although Joe Hess, who suffered a laceration above his eye last week, will be ready for action.

Other Starters

Coach Dry indicated today that he will probably use Howard and Fidler at ends; Sam and Charley Weaver at tackles; Epley and Sanders, guards; Sperry, center; Shaner, quarterback; Little and S. Dorsey, halfbacks, and Timbers, fullback. Chambersburg's victory over Hanover last week put the Franklin countians in the thick of the race for the South Penn title and the Trojans are certain to hurl their full strength against Gettysburg in an effort to boost their rating.

Chambersburg has won three of four games played. The Mercersburg academy jayvees were walloped 44-0, Columbia high was defeated 13-6 and Hanover 7-6. The lone reverse was a 16-6 decision which went to Hershey.

The following are expected to start for Chambersburg: Saunders and N. Koutris, ends; Hollar and Houser, tackles; Crist and Shropshire, guards; Leisher, center; Leshner, quarterback; Gelman and J. Koutris, halfbacks, and Shoemaker, fullback.

LIONS CHOICE OVER MARYLAND

State College, Pa., Oct. 22 (AP)—Graying Bob Higgins, Penn State football coach, took what comfort he could today from pre-game dope that made his team favorites over Maryland in their game Saturday at College Park, Maryland, but admitted he was set for trouble.

"Sure, we're expected to win," he declared, "and if you ask me it's about time we did win. Our scouts say Maryland has a football team—and to me, that spells trouble."

Higgins expects to lose 17 Navy trainees from his squad shortly, a factor that will cause a reorganization up and down the line and through the backfield.

Six backs, five guards, three ends, two tackles and a center are slated for reassignment by the Navy.

Outgoing players include Powers, varsity center; Mariades and Berry, guards; Hapanowicz and Kyle, tackles; Smyth and Trumbull, ends, and Castignola, Graham, McGuire and Mouch, backs. Earl "Sparky" Brown, Penn State fullback, has already reported for induction into the Army Air Corps.

Bertelli In Final Game Against Navy

Clairton Seeking 20th Win In Row

Pittsburgh, Oct. 22 (AP)—Clairton high school, in hot pursuit of the class AA WPIAL football championship, will shoot for its 20th consecutive win in its game tonight against Charleroi.

The Clairton hurricane hopped off on its long-extended winning streak when it drubbed Homestead back in 1941.

Now it is one of four teams having a chance for the top WPIAL honors this year. The others are New Castle, Turtle Creek and Brownsville. New Castle has to get past Butler tonight to stay in the race.

Class A also has a warm game on tap for tonight. Clark high of Scott township against one of its most persistent foes, Carnegie. The Clarkmen are unbeaten in class A competition and will strive to maintain their ascendancy but Carnegie has always been a gaffly, having won four of its games from Clark in the last six years.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Oct. 22 (AP)—Bill Paschal, the football Giants' "freshman" ball-carrying star, is just that: he never played college football. . . . Bill served two terms of spring practice at Georgia Tech but never played because of a knee injury he received falling out of the upper deck of a dormitory bunk.

Nat Fleischer, who has shown his fight movies in 47 service camps, says that at first the boys gave their biggest cheers to Jack Dempsey, then Joe Louis took over the No. 1 spot and now it's Billy Conn who gets the biggest hand. . . . Eddie Arcaro and George Woolf are boosting Raymond Arundini, an 18-year-old apprentice jockey who is getting some "live" horses at Pimlico. . . . Lloyd Wickett, new Detroit Lions' tackle, is a commercial salmon fisherman. Suppose that makes him a catch.

30,000 HUNTERS HAVE RECEIVED DOE LICENSES

By RALPH E. WALLIS

Harrisburg, Oct. 22 (AP)—Approximately 30,000 of the 55,000 persons allotted special licenses to hunt antlerless deer during a three-day December season in eight northern counties were either on their way to, or in the hands of, applicants today.

Applications for the $1 permits are arriving at Game Commission offices at a daily rate of 750 to 1,000, Director Seth Gordon said, despite reports that sportsmen's clubs in several counties are trying to block shooting of does.

Gordon said Sullivan and Warren counties, with quotas of 2,500 each, had reached their limits and no more permits would be issued for them.

List Quotas

Other counties, their quotas and the number of applications issued are:
Cameron, 5,000 and 2,578; Clinton, 5,000 and 1,847; Lycoming, 5,000 and 3,156; McKean, 15,000 and 6,095; Potter, 15,000 and 4,277; and Tioga, 5,000 and 1,222.

Petitions to halt Game commission action approving the special doe season of December 13, 14 and 15 require signatures of 50 per cent of the 1942 resident hunters of the county. Gordon said no petitions had reached his office yet.

Sportsmen's clubs of Clinton, Tioga, and Cameron counties are among those protesting the special season.

Gordon said some sportsmen in Tioga county protested because they feared "outside hunters" would get the licenses and resident sportsmen would be shut out.

A survey of more than 1,000 special permits issued for Tioga county showed at least 45 per cent were issued to residents, Gordon declared.

FIVE ARE FREED OF CONSPIRACY

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 22 (AP)—

Former State Senator Anthony J. Cavalcante and four Fayette county officials were acquitted yesterday of charges of conspiracy in the eighth of a series of trials which grew out of a special grand jury investigation of alleged graft and other irregularities in county affairs.

The jury of six men and six women returned its verdict to Judge Horatio S. Dumbauld shortly before midnight. The trial had been in progress 19 days.

Acquitted with Cavalcante were County Commissioners John W. Rankin, Arthur Higinbotham and Michael Karolek, and County Controller Albert Montgomery.

The five were accused of conspiring to make an illegal payment of $10,000 to Cavalcante for his services in compromising a state tax lien against the county.

To date there have been five convictions and three acquittals in the series of trials. Two charges of misbehavior in office against the officials and one of conspiracy against Attorney W. Brown Higbee, who received $6,000 in connection with the state claim litigation but returned the money, remain to be tried.

The costs of the eighth case were put on the county.

HUNTERS, KEEP OUT

Harrisburg, Oct. 22 (AP)—The Game commission has asked Pennsylvania hunters to stay out of soy bean fields when the small game season opens Saturday, October 30, warning that the stalks of the unharvested crop are brittle and any disturbance will cause the beans to fall to the ground.

SPORT SHORTS

Philadelphia, Oct. 22 (AP)—Lightweight Champion Bob Montgomery got down too fine in his training to meet Petey Scalzo in a 10-rounder at Convention hall next Monday night, so he's taking it easy from now to ringtime.

Montgomery's weight had dropped to 135 yesterday, where it should have been around 137.

The Philadelphia Athletics will train "around Philadelphia" next spring, Vice President Roy Mack said, after Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis announced that all major league clubs will have northern training camps for the second successive year, because of war conditions.

Eddie Giosa won his 18th straight fight since turning professional last night, taking an eight-round decision from Frankie Donato, a fellow Philadelphiaan, before a crowd of 2,600 that set a new record at the Olympia for the second successive week. Giosa weighed 132½ and Donato, 123.

Joe Kirkwood, Huntingdon Valley golf pro and noted trick shot artist, will drive to no more golf tournaments while the war continues, his Abington ration board ruled yesterday.

The board revoked Kirkwood's gasoline ration for the duration, claiming that between January and July of this year he drove seven times the number of miles his A and B coupons would allow.

Bucknell ruled the favorite over Temple today for their game at Owl stadium tonight, though Temple has won two of four, and Bucknell one of five games this season. The Bisons have been up against stronger competition.

Five Bucknell players will play their final game. They are due to be transferred elsewhere as Navy trainees.

Tonight's contest will be highlighted by rivalry between Gene Hubka, Temple's left-halfback, and his brother, Tony, who plays the same position for Bucknell.

Al Kasulin, West Hazleton boy, has just about clinched the starting fullback position with Villanova by his work in the Bucknell game, and is expected to be in the opening lineup in that spot tomorrow against Lakehurst.

Gene Konopka, who suffered a slight concussion last week, is not expected to see action with the Wildcats tomorrow.

John Small, youngest player ever to win a place on a University of Pennsylvania varsity team, has been shifted from fullback to blocking back as the Red and Blue drills for its clash with Columbia at New York tomorrow.

SOUTHERN CAL, NAVY, MICHIGAN PICKED TO WIN

By ORLO ROBERTSON

New York, Oct. 22 (AP)—With the knowledge that there is yet to be a real upset week this football season but with the hopes that the underdogs delay a concentrated attack for another week at least we give you: (Visiting teams first).

Southern California-Pacific — A toughie to start with. The Trojans have a powerful line, Stagg has St. Mary's 1942 backfield, including Presto Podesta. Southern Cal to snap Pacific's winning streak.

Georgia Tech-Navy — This one should furnish a good line on the Oct. 30 meeting of Navy and Notre Dame. Notre Dame whipped Tech 55-12. Can't see the Middles doing that well but should win handily.

Army-Yale — The question here is will Army be scored on for the first time. Maybe the Elis will but Army will do the same many more times.

Illinois-Notre Dame — Illinois has improved steadily but not enough to come close to one of Notre Dame's best.

Colgate-Cornell — Cornell has the backs to rip Colgate's line apart.

Iowa-Purdue — Can't see Iowa's Civilians stopping Purdue's high-scoring Tony Butkovich.

Quakers in Warmup

Penn-Columbia — The Quakers in another warmup before meeting Army next week.

Minnesota-Michigan — We would like to overlook this one but it's on the schedule so Bill Daley to lead the Wolverines to victory over his former teammates.

Northwestern-Ohio State — Probably will be close for one half, then Northwestern will start rolling behind Otto Graham. Northwestern.

Louisiana State-Georgia — Louisiana won the first game this year 34-27. Can't see any change in the outcome since Steve Van Buren is still around.

Rice-Texas — Texas is challenging for the Southwest conference title and is not likely to be sidetracked by the Owls.

Southern Methodist-Tulane — S.M.U. beat Rice 12-0. Tulane whipped 'em 33-0.

March Field-Washington — Two undefeated teams but Washington, its schedule all but wiped out by cancellations, hasn't been tested.

Indiana Choice
Wisconsin-Indiana — The Hoosiers to win with Bob Hoernschemeyer leading the attack.

Southwestern (La.)-Southwestern (Tex.) — A couple of little schools with big teams. Flipping a coin.

Georgia Pre-Flight-North Carolina Pre-Flight — Pat Harder and Steve Filipowicz won't play for the Skyrockets but Carl Molte will be in there pitching.

Utah-Tulsa — Tulsa without an argument.

Penn State-Maryland — The Nittony Lions have too much for the civilian-manned Old Liners.

Oklahoma-Kansas State — Oklahoma to start its conference schedule in the win column.

Kansas-Nebraska — On a hunch, Kansas.

St. Mary's Pre-Flight-California — Too many players of proven ability at St. Mary's. The Pre-Flighters.

Other Selections

Colorado State-Colorado — The big game of the season in the Rockies between unbeaten eleven. State has the more versatile backfield so it's Colorado State.

Tripping over the chalk lines: Pittsburgh over Bethany, Texas Christian over Okla Aggies, Camp Grant over Ft. Riley, Camp Davis over Davidson, Jacksonville Naval ATTC over Camp Lejeune, Texas Aggies over North Texas, Iowa State over Ottumwa Navy, Daniel Field over Presbyterian, Wake Forest over VMI, Lafayette over Lehigh, West Virginia over Carnegie, Bucknell over Temple (Friday), Bainbridge Navy over Camp Lee (Sunday), Boston College over Camp Bingham (Sunday), Del Monte Pre-Flight over San Francisco (Sunday), and Great Lakes over Marquette (Sunday).

legal any action of the former executive commission nor the present so-called "Philippine Republic."

Story Time At The Musials'

Stan Musial, Donora, Pa.'s gift to big league baseball, reads a bedtime story to little Dicky, aged 3, in the Musial home. Stan turned in a bang-up job of outfielding for the St. Louis Cards last season, winding up with the National league batting championship.

FEWER FANS AT LEAGUE GAMES

New York, Oct. 22 (AP)—Major league baseball, which had about ten and a quarter million cash customers in 1941, took another wallop in the region of the pocketbook during the past season, but it wasn't anything that a couple of good teams in New York couldn't correct.

Out of a total net loss in attendance of 1,160,119, New York's shares was 1,063,709. Even the world champion Yankees, winning the American league pennant for the third straight year, saw their home attendance fall off more than 300,000 from the 1942 figures. The Brooklyn Dodgers who had drawn more than a million fans in three of the previous four years, slumped nearly 400,000 to a total of 688,633 and the Giants' attendance dropped from 867,614 to 506,345.

Only one other club suffered a comparable loss. The Boston Red Sox slid 376,335 down from their record 1942 total of 741,026.

Washington, which registered a gain of 105,000 at the gate in 1942, added a 177,000 gain this year to bring its total to 580,000. The Phillies' attendance catapulted from 230,183 in 1942 to 466,876 during the past season.

The Chicago White Sox showed a gain of $2,088, offsetting a loss of 80,972 by the Cubs. Pittsburgh and Detroit also showed gains of about 40,000 each.

They would not have us shake our heads
Or bid their little pranks to cease,
Or send the youngsters to their beds,
For Halloween is part of peace.
And Halloween and goblins small,
And ghosts which walk about in white,
And jack-o'-lanterns, after all,
Are part of that for which they fight.

These sons of ours, at posts away,
Are trusting us at home to be
As brave of spirit as they
Who fight the foes of liberty.
And little children, dimly seen,
Who through the windows come to peep
And frighten folks on Halloween,
Are part of that they fight to keep.

So when the door bell rings be glad
And chuckle at the pranks they play.
That childhood should be blithe and glad
Are millions fighting miles away.
When little ghosts invade the scene,
Give back to them pretended fright,
For all the fun of Halloween
Is part of that for which they fight.

ON EARNING A LIVING

There are those who appraise a person's worth by what he earns. How is anyone to know just how much a person earns? Mere earning only suggests intrinsic value—and not always that! Earning to live is so much more expensive—and by this I would not have anyone take it to mean mere existence expense. Many a millionaire dies without ever having learned to truly live. Earning a living well is to have earned the relation of values, and to have learned about the wealth that lies hidden in a blade of grass, or in the beauty of a rarely colored flower. To have earned the appreciation of everything in Nature is to have truly lived. The riches of the mind far outweigh those in material possessions. To have earned an understanding of the significant in life is to have earned well.

People were not put here upon the earth to merely earn enough money to satisfy their living, but to so live as to build up a vast and influential life—itsself abundant in richness—and overflowing this gain to everyone contacted. Thoreau spent very little time in the mere earning of a livelihood, but he earned immortality through his brief life of observation, and the love of everything created—bequeathing this great amount of earning to endless posterity. He truly lived his forty-five years and honestly earned his fame.

If you earn happiness you have earned what mere wealth cannot bring. There is too much importance to a life to mishandle it by devoting all of one's time to the mere earning of a livelihood. Earn to eat, yes. But learn to live! I like that phrase—live abundantly. It suggests the full life, the adventurous one, the inquiring one, and the purposeful one. It takes so much more than mere money to earn genuine living.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Bells."

The Army's M-3 sub-machine gun, weighing about 12 pounds, can be carried in an ordinary brief case and is capable of firing 450 rounds a minute.

WOUNDED AND ILL SOLDIERS FLOWN HOME

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(The Associated Press)

Philadelphia, Oct. 22 (AP)—One hundred and twenty-five thousand men, wounded or sick, have been flown from American combat areas to hospitals in the last 20 months.

In September, 1,015 men were flown, from battles all over the world, all the way home to base hospitals in the United States.

In North Africa and Sicily the 12th air force flew 25,000 wounded without a single accident, and with only one death en route.

These are the highlights in one of the war's most dramatic stories, given to the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States here today by Lt. Col. Richard L. Meiling, of the air surgeon's office army air forces, Washington.

Military Advantage

He said that the planes have done what medical men, generals and airmen believed impossible two years ago. The doctors thought that flying would be injurious to some cases. But very nearly every type of wound and disease in this world, Col. Meiling said, has now been flown successfully, except only poison gas casualties. There have been none of the latter. However, the planes are equipped to handle them safely.

Instead of the transport of wounded being in the way of military operations, as was feared two years ago, this air transport has actually speeded up the movement of troops and material into battle. Flying the wounded has relieved the congested military roads of the need for many of the vehicles that would have had to carry casualties, and has left more space for combat troops. The planes have saved the use of many Red Cross hospital trains and hospital ships.

ASK INCREASE OF FOOD CROPS

Harrisburg, Oct. 22 (AP)—State agricultural leaders, attending a food production conference, today asked for committee reports on how much output of key food crops can be increased on Pennsylvania farms next year.

Special committees named to study goals for dairy, poultry and livestock products and for vegetables, potatoes, grains, hay, soybeans and tobacco, prepared the reports for action at the final sessions of the two-day conference, called by the State War Board, U. S. Agriculture Department agency.

The 125 conferees, representing state and federal government agencies and farm organizations, yesterday heard J. Mark Fry, of the Pennsylvania State college extension service, assert prospects for a better labor supply next year are not very bright.

Although Fry declared, "Farmers in an industrial state like Pennsylvania cannot compete with industries for experienced labor," he told the farm leaders, "no crops worth harvesting remained unharvested this year in Pennsylvania." Invested this year in Pennsylvania? The extension service had recruited 37,000 persons for farm work.

Wirt S. Winebrenner, of the state cannery association, said if canners are provided enough common labor, "the industry will produce to capacity."

College Abandons "Freshman Rules"

Waynesburg, Pa., Oct. 22 (AP)—By decree of the president, Paul R. Stewart, Waynesburg college has abandoned "freshman rules"—including the wearing of skull-caps, armbands and black socks and ties—for the duration.

Elated frosh rushed cheering from the administration building after the announcement was made and proceeded to build a huge bonfire on which they tossed the hated regalia of the lower classmen.

President Stewart said the dropping of "freshman rules" is a part of Waynesburg's new wartime streamlining of education.

East Hampton, Massachusetts, is visiting at the same place.

Albert Partner, Baltimore street, has gone to Florida for the winter.

Mrs. Leo Bushman, Baltimore street, who has been at the University of Pennsylvania hospital, Philadelphia, for several days, is spending the week-end at home.

Mrs. John Sperry and son, William of Cumberland, Md., are visiting Howard Hartley, Carlisle street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horner, Jr., and Miss Mildred Horner, of Norwalk, Connecticut, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. William B. McIlhenny, Woodside farm.

Miss Gladys Burgoon, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. William Pensyl, Hanover street.

Mrs. Harvey Lewis of Orttanna, is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Hyde, of Wichita, Kansas.

To the delight of the audience, Pogue complied, and brought the house down by playing three choruses of "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes."

LOYAL SUPPORTER

Pittsburgh, (AP)—Smiling hopefully, State Senator John M. Walker settled back to read the lone letter he received about his radio broadcast Tuesday as part of his campaign for judge.

"I admire your courage and straightforward attitude," it stated. "I like the way you presented your views and beliefs. I would like to vote for you—but I'm in prison."

"Just looking around, sir," the startled private said.

Hastily the major closed the door and led his guests away.

Now, after thinking it over, he's looking for the soldier—to promote him to private first class for his ingenuity.

HISTORY HANGS IN BALANCE AS TALKS PROCEED

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, Oct. 22 (AP)—Next week the history of the United States for generations to come may be spelled out in hot oratory here and cool conversation in Moscow.

Behind closed Moscow doors State Secretary Hull is meeting with the foreign ministers of Britain and Russia for an exchange of ideas on what the three nations expect and intend after the war.

Here the Senate will debate but probably pass a resolution, approved by its Foreign Relations committee yesterday, that the United States should join with other nations after the war in preventing aggression and maintaining peace.

Expected to Pass

That resolution, accused by its critics of being deliberately and dangerously vague because too many interpretations may be placed upon it, does not say whether the post-war cooperation should be by military alliance or some kind of league of nations.

The Senate most likely will pass the resolution before Hull returns. If he brings back news which please the Senate, then good. If not, then nothing is lost. The Senate resolution is an evidence of intention, not a completely binding commitment.

It is binding on the future, one

Senator said, only in the sense of "honor."

He meant it would assure foreign nations now that after the war we intend to play ball with them to keep the peace, thus making it awkward not to play.

Senate Must Ratify

With Senate approval of the resolution—the House already has overwhelmingly passed a similar one—the President and Hull can proceed with foreign post-war plans they might not otherwise attempt if there was doubt on the Senate's position.

But since the resolution at best remains only an expression of good intention, the Senate at some future date would have to pass on any actual peacetime treaty of foreign alliance or involvement by a two-thirds vote.

If the Senate were displeased by developments abroad, between passage of the resolution and time for passing on a treaty, it could kill the whole idea by voting down the treaty. Hull's story on his return may make the difference.

STATE OBSERVANCE

Harrisburg, Oct. 22 (AP)—Pennsylvanians were asked today by Governor Martin to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the birth of the Czechoslovak republic on Thursday, October 28. "The cause of Czechoslovakia is the cause of all civilization," the Governor said in a statement. He also reminded Pennsylvanians that Wednesday, October 27, is the 85th anniversary of the birth of former President Theodore Roosevelt.

The U. S. Army Signal corps now numbers 280,000 men and 28,000 officers, or twice the enrollment of the entire peace-time regular Army.

7,000 WORKERS ON PERMANENT STATE PAYROLL

Harrisburg, Oct. 22 (AP)—Regular salaries for 7,000 department of highway workers now paid by the day will boost morale, Governor Martin said today after he approved their transfer to the permanent payroll.

The governor's office said the action would bring to 15,000 the number of state employees in Pennsylvania. All of those affected by the transfer, however, work in Harrisburg. Some have been on their jobs for several years.

"It will be better for their morale," Martin declared, adding the switch would bring "no appreciable increase in cost to the taxpayers."

Labor Turnover

In a statement announcing the move, Martin asserted: "Due to the uncertainty of employment and the per diem system of pay, there has been a terrific turnover in labor, x x x these per diem state employees have no social retirement, unemployment compensation or vacations, all of which has a tendency to create much unrest and dissatisfaction, owing to their economic insecurity."

"Secretary Shroyer assures me," the governor's statement said, "that we can function properly and maintain the highways with a permanent force with x x x the assurance that the highway department will continue to maintain the roads adequately, provide snow removal service and keep the large network of highways in Pennsylvania in the excellent condition which is so essential to wartime traffic."

Martin said per diem employees would still be hired to take care of seasonal loads.

Mystery Plane Frightens City

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 22 (AP)—This city of 60,000 underwent an excited 45 minutes last night while an unidentified airplane swooped and roared over the community at near hootsop level.

The craft, believed to be two-engine, circled the plant of the Lycoming division, Aviation Manufacturing Company, several times and fled southward when plant officials and employees tried to focus a searchlight on the plane from the factory's roof.

Police, newspapers and other public service offices were swamped with telephone calls during the plane's erratic flight over the city.

Teachers Hear Of Pan-Americanism

Pittsburgh, Oct. 22 (AP)—Public school teachers and administrators attending the Western Pennsylvania Education Conference were advised "to see that the student knows the things that go into true Pan-Americanism."

These were listed by Hubert Herring, director of the committee on cultural relations with Latin America, in an address last night as "realism, respect, imagination and affection."

Although the good neighbor policy is a step in the right direction toward true Pan-Americanism, Herring said, North Americans "still are not realistic about Latin America."

Instead of thinking of the whole of Latin America in terms of moonlight, romance and music, he said, the United States should realize that to the south of us are individual countries with their own problems.

There are 141 colleges in the United States with endowments of $2,000,000 or more, the heaviest endowed institution being Harvard university with $143,000,000.

Youth's Negligence
Caused $125,000 Fire

Harrisburg, Oct. 22 (AP)—Failure of a 15-year-old store employee to disconnect a pressing iron was blamed yesterday by city and state investigators for starting the $125-000 fire which flared in Harrisburg's downtown section for several hours early last Saturday.

The investigators said the boy told of pressing some clothes Friday night and leaving the iron turned on when he was told to mail a letter and go home. The fire destroyed the Army-Navy induction center and 10 stores.

Peat soils of the Florida everglades have been made productive by the addition of small amounts of copper and manganese.

In our private family room the family may see and hear the service without being observed by others present.

CURIOSITY TOOK
ARMY NURSES TO BATTLE FRONTS

Fort Devens, Mass., Oct. 22 (AP)—
Army nurses overseas were so curious about what was going on that they hitch-hiked rides to the front lines when off-duty, Lieut.
Lenore Critchfield, ANC, of Johnstown, Pa., said today at Lovell General hospital.

Her unit landed at Oran in November, 1942, then followed the first division right up through to Kasserine Pass.

"The hospital was about 25 miles from Kasserine Pass when the Germans broke through," she said. "We were ordered to move our tent it up again by moonlight."

"When we got off duty at night we used to hitch rides in ambulances up to the front lines to see what was going on," she declared.

"I've heard bullets whizzing around, but it was lots of fun. The boys were always glad to see us and talk to us. The morale was wonderful in the front lines and still more wonderful when the wounded came back."

Used Lots Of Plasma
"It didn't matter how badly they were shot up, they'd still argue that their outfit was the best in the army. We used a lot of plasma in our hospital and it sure saved a lot of boys' lives."

Lieut. Critchfield had her appendix out, lying on a litter in a tent, a short time after Kasserine Pass, but was back at work in three and one-half weeks.

"We were so busy that I just had to return," she said.

STRIKE CONTINUES

Philadelphia, Oct. 22 (AP)—The strike of union barbers in downtown shops was in its fifth day here today, with no signs of weakening on the part of shop owners, who are carrying on alone, or the journeymen, who seek higher base pay and increased commissions. Charles Lamotta, international organizer for the barbers, hairdressers and cos-metologists union (AFL) said Local 9 passed a resolution last night to remain on strike until full demands are met.

Farm Leader Hits
Sales Tax Proposal

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 22 (AP)—Describing a proposed federal sales tax as "diametrically opposite to that sound principle, from each according to his means," James G. Patton of Denver, Col., President of the National Farmers Union, told delegates to a tri-state convention of the Union's eastern division last night that such a tax would "bear heaviest on those least able to pay."

Patton outlined for New Jersey,
Pennsylvania and Maryland delegates to the convention a three-point program which he called the common interests of members of the union:

"First, in winning this war as a peoples' war; second, in seeing to it that it is followed by a just and lasting peace, and third, within a sensible world organization, we here in the United States of America must turn our potential production of agricultural and industrial

Railroad Leaders
Conferring Today

Chicago, Oct. 22 (AP)—Chiefs of the five operating railroad Brother-hoods were to meet today to map the next step in their 10-months old fight to secure more "satisfactory"— wage increases for the union's 350-000 members.

As the union leaders planned on what course to pursue in an effort to end the near year-long wage dispute between the Brotherhoods and the nation's major railroads, spokesmen expressed the opinion that a strike vote was considered a "possibility."

Pliny the Elder urged the eating of asparagus as early as 60 A.D.
Total milk output in the United States has increased almost 10 billion pounds since 1940.

been to the blessing it can be in the future."

Happiness Ahead . . .

Where will you be at 65? After a full and active life, will you be ready to relax and enjoy the remaining years—or will you have to continue working for a living or be dependent upon relatives?

There's no "success story" to a retirement income. It's simply the result of planning ahead and saving a little bit now. And it's easy to accomplish with Farm Bureau's retirement income policy, in which your life insurance needs and your retirement income needs are both adequately combined.

THEY'RE HANGING THE MAYOR...our own mayor, because he wouldn't "collaborate." Wouldn't help to starve, freeze, strip, and help to murder all of us, his fellow townsmen. Surely this is another instance where it's "more blessed to give than to receive"...the benefits of these agencies listed here. So give...give...give...and be glad you can!

DON'T THINK it couldn't have been your mother scrubbing the V off the sidewalk. Because a lot of Frenchmen and Poles and Russians and Greeks thought it couldn't happen either. They found out differently...and that's one of the reasons you won't.

SICKNESS STRIKES MERCILESSLY when the invader takes all the food and the fuel. The weakened conquered are easy prey to pestilence in all its forms. Picture yourself...right here in your home town...with your own little girl in your arms...being turned away from one of our hospitals because the invaders took all the medicines and beds for themselves! Let us help...by giving now.

GETTYSBURG, GERMANY

Here's a sample of what we didn't get because our fighting allies did!

THEY took it...all the sadistic horror of the fuor Teutonicus...in London and Lidice. In Warsaw, Prague, Paris, everywhere the swastika cast its evil shadow.

We didn't get it here in Gettysburg. You don't see the flag with the crooked cross over our City Hall.

Well, let's not get smug about it. And let's face it...one of the biggest reasons we didn't run that risk is that our fighting allies were keeping it away from us while we were getting ready. Sure, Russians were fighting for Russia, Englishmen for England, Greeks for Greece, yet the fact remains the same!

And what ingrates we'd be now if we don't do everything we can to help. The Russian guerillas, the Jugo-Slavs, the amazing Chinese, all the men, women, and even children who are resisting the Nazis and the Japs till breath leaves their bodies.

Those bodies need food. Clothing. Medicines. They need them to keep fighting...to break the yoke of Axis domination.

The National War Fund is simply a new, efficient mechanism for getting those foods, clothes, and medicines to them in the quickest possible time with the least amount of red tape.

But the National War Fund fights on two other fronts, too. It fights with our own fighting forces through the USO and its multitude of morale-maintaining activities. It fights on the Home Front, too, by combining its appeal with that of our own local agencies. The need for home front aid is greater than ever now with fathers in service, mothers in factories, and "youth problems" rampant.

Look over the list of agencies. Figure out what you'd give each one. Add it all up...and double it!

You're only being asked to give once ...and for all these 17 agencies. So... come on Gettysburg, make it good!

HOME SWEET HOME...Here was the core and center of your life...burned to the ground by a vandal Axis torch. Russia has many, many scenes like this...and Greece, Jugo-Slavia, Norway, and...remember a village called Lidice? We've been lucky in our town. Seems like a good idea to sort of celebrate our good luck by sharing with the less lucky.

RECENT "GUEST" AT AN "AXIS CLUB"...Both the Nazis and the Japs have a fine, civilized custom in common. The pretty girls in a conquered area are collected and placed in "clubs" for the troops. The prettiest go to "officer's clubs." It didn't happen here!

Dr. A. R. Wentz Urges Guard To Preserve Honor Flags

tion as the men of this town and county have prepared to defend their homes and firesides from threatened assault. The annals of this county contain many a thrilling chapter relating to the home guards.

Guardians of Shrine

"And, of course, we do not forget, in these days of titanic struggle between the forces of democracy and the forces of totalitarianism,—we do not forget that we of Gettysburg and Adams county, Pennsylvania, are in a very special sense the guardians of that immortal shrine on your Cemetery Hill where the great Lincoln pronounced the classic watchword of democracy, those unyielding phrases that are now being translated into reality all around the globe: 'That government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.' Yes, you stand in a great tradition when you stand under those colors in your present capacity.

"Second, we remind you that, when you march under these emblems of state and nation, you march in step with a great comradeship. Other counties, our neighbors near and far, in the great State of Pennsylvania, have organized similar units and are marching under these same colors. You are united in bonds of comradeship with all of them throughout the Keystone State. And other states of the Union, all over the vast range of this glorious republic, have their State Guard Reserves. With all of them you are keeping step in the fellowship of splendid service. Then too, there is the multitude of our men and women who are in the armed service of the nation, some of them at this very moment carrying the national colors into the din and carnage and devastation of battle. Out from this town and county have gone many hundreds of the very flower of our youth, to train and to fight on the first line of our national defense, on land, on sea, and in the air. This fellowship of our sons and daughters, our brothers and sisters, stretches all around the globe this evening, and in this noble fellowship you of the home defense have a very real part. Yes, you march in step with a great comradeship when you march under those colors in your present capacity.

Spirit of Sacrifice

"And third, we remind you that when you bear those standards before you, you set forth a great principle. There is no more fundamental instinct in the human breast than the instinct to defend those whom we love, the things we love, the places we love. There is no higher principle from God in heaven than the principle of sacrifice, the principle of offering our lives for the safety and happiness of others. But these are the very principles that are emblazoned on the colors you now bear, the principles to which you give yourselves

Chapter 8
Meg and Dippy and Frances greeted Sally with shouts as she opened the door quietly. "Where have you been?" They chorused. "Did you faint over your patient? We were getting ready to call the hospital."

Sally sat down on the floor and cautiously pulled off her shoes. "No, I've been out with a doctor."

Dippy whistled. "A doctor! Her first night as a Nurse's Aide, our little Sally hooks herself a doctor. Bald-headed and father of six, I suppose?"

Sally said indignantly. "Not at all. He's unattached, about 28, or 29, tall, sort of Scotch-looking."

"How did you ever pick him up?" demanded Frances. "With five girls to every man in this town, I can't imagine an unattached doctor still footloose."

Sally explained she and Peter had met before—with boxing gloves. "Don't make anything of it, girls. He just bought me a cup of coffee, and told me about his life. Fundamentally, he doesn't approve of me. He thinks we're all sissies."

TRUCK DRIVER NEGLIGENT IS JURY'S VERDICT; CHARGE IS FILED

Found by a coroner's jury last Thursday afternoon, to have been negligent in his operation of the truck which fatally injured Wm. W. Miller, 66-year-old Straban township farmer, Wednesday morning of Gettysburg, Robert Curvin Dietz, 34, Hallam R. 1, was arrested immediately after the inquest on a charge of involuntary manslaughter brought by state police.

Dietz was arraigned before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore where Corporal C. F. Tenke had filed the charge and was released under a $2,000 bond for his appearance in November court.

Dietz Silent at Inquest
Only four witnesses were called by Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, at the inquest in the court house. Dietz, who was represented by Franklin R. Bigham, Esq., made no statement to the jury.

The verdict of the coroner's jury, reached about 15 minutes after the completion of the brief testimony, found simply that Mr. Miller had died of a fractured skull and internal injuries received when the grain drill on which he was riding was struck by the truck operated by Dietz. "We believe Robert C. Dietz was negligent in the operation of his truck," the jury added.

Doctor Crist, District Attorney J. Francis Yake, Mr. Bigham and E. V. Bullett, Esq., who represented Theron Miller, son of the accident victim, questioned the witnesses.

Officer Testifies
Principal witness was Corporal Tenke, who conducted the police investigation of the fatality. He quoted Dietz as saying after the accident that he had been driving west at a speed of about 35 to 40 miles an hour. He noticed the drill and two-horse team ahead of him but when he attempted to turn out to pass he found the steering gear locked. He put on the brakes but it was "too late" to avoid the collision.

The officer said that he supervised a test of the truck after the crash—with Harry Dietz, brother of the accused man at the wheel—and found the steering gear and the brakes in "perfect" condition. Later a York mechanic checked the steering apparatus and found it "okay," Tenke testified.

The officer said the truck apparently had hit the drill squarely with parts of the farm implement caught on both front fenders of the truck. Tenke also testified there was a clear view of the roadway for at least 1,500 feet east of the scene of the crash.

Skid Marks Described
He described 126-foot skid marks leading to the truck from the point of collision. The marks ran straight for 12 feet and then curved to the left as the truck crossed the three-lane highway and stopped on the south berm, showing the shattered drill, the two horses and Mr. Miller's body before it.

Corporal Tenke showed the jury enlargements of snapshots he made at the scene indicating the brake marks began less than three feet east of the marks on the highway made by the drill hoes when that machine was hit. The marks showed that both the truck and drill were in the north lane of traffic when the collision occurred.

William Signor, who lives near the scene of the accident, testified he went to the scene after hearing the crash and described the position of the vehicles. He said Mr. Miller always was careful when driving horses on the highway.

Times Photographer Called
Grover C. Flint, another neighbor, heard the crash and looked over shrubbery to see the top of the truck "shooting" across the highway and stop. He said he thought a tire had blown out and did not learn until later of the accident. Last witness was G. Henry Roth, Gettysburg Times photographer, who showed pictures he made at the scene the morning of the crash and later the same day. He reported on a conversation he held with Dietz after the crash in which the latter's statements were similar to those given Tenke. Roth said Dietz stated he had been driving a truck for the York feed firm of Hespeneheide and Thompson, Inc., for 16 years.

Members of the jury were H. M. Oyler, Charles T. Ziegler, S. F. Swope, L. H. Eckert, William I. Shields and Hugh C. McElhenny.

CHILD SCALDED
Donna Mae Taylor, 2½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Taylor, Gardner R. 2, was treated at the Warner hospital Tuesday for second degree burns to the body and arms received when she was scalded by hot apple butter.

Aviation Students Arrive Here Today

Another contingent of aviation students arrived in Gettysburg shortly before noon Tuesday to join the 55th College Training Detachment. The men were assigned here from a southern camp.

They were met at the Reading station by Captain John R. Coshey and his staff after which they marched to the college where they were addressed briefly by Captain Coshey, given bedding and assigned to quarters. They will begin classes in a few days.

WOODEN CASES FOR HONOR ROLL ARE COMPLETED

Completion of the three wooden cases for the names of nearly 3,000 Adams countians now serving in the armed forces was announced Saturday by the committee in charge of erection of a permanent honor roll of countians in the service.

The large cases will be placed on the north side of the Dougherty and Hartley building facing the Gettysburg square. Dedication of the honor roll will take place on November 11 with the American Legion in charge of the program.

The 2,653 names are being printed in gold letters on small panels which will be placed in alphabetical order in the cases. The cases, built at the Gettysburg furniture factories, will be painted white and will be placed in the show rooms of the factories until the names are placed.

False Rumor

"There has been a rumor that parents wishing their sons or daughters names to appear in the honor roll must pay for the name plate," Dr. R. D. Wickerham, chairman of the committee said today. "That rumor is absolutely false. The honor roll, which will remain as a permanent exhibit of the roster of the men and women of the county, is being constructed by donations from individuals and organizations throughout the county and there is no charge, to each individual, for the placing of the names. It is difficult to understand how the rumor started. There will be some names not included among the list at first, due to inability of the committee to learn the name of every man and woman from the county now in the service. We rely on the parents and friends of those whom we missed to tell us about it so that we can complete the list. We now have 2,653 names, but there are more countians in service than that. However, we plan, with the assistance of countians to have every service name on the roster."

Estimated Cost

The drive to collect funds for the honor roll is progressing rapidly. It was stated, with nearly one-half of the sum presently needed in the hands of the committee. While no estimate can be made of the total amount required it will run between $1,500 and $2,000, it was estimated. While the original cost will not be that great a reserve fund must be created to have additional names printed as other countians are called to the service each month, it was stated.

"The only way we will be able to tell how much the project will cost will be for the war to end," Dr. Wickerham said, "then we will know how many men will be called into the service."

NEW COS SERVED HERE IN 1918

Brigadier General Norman Randolph, new chief of staff of the Third Service Command with headquarters at Baltimore, was an instructor at the Tank Corps Officers Training School at Camp Colt, on the Battlefield, during the first World War.

General Randolph succeeds Brigadier General Edwin Butcher who was relieved from active duty on September 30. He was chief of staff for the Second Army, with headquarters at Memphis, Tenn., before going to Baltimore. He now serves under General Milton A. Reckord, commanding general of the Third Service Command which embraces Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia.

The new chief of staff is a graduate of West Point, class of 1915, and served in the Philippines, Latin America, Fort Benning, Ga., and represented this country on a military mission to Spain for which he received the medal of the Spanish Order of Military Merit of Alfonso XIII, in 1942.

GOP MAJORITY INCREASES 219 OVER PRIMARY

The Republican majority in Adams county has increased from 1,400 to 1,619, according to a count by the clerks of the Adams County Registration commission of the number of countians eligible to vote at the November 2 election. The majority is one of the largest the Republicans have ever had in the county and is an increase of 219 over the majority prior to the primaries.

The total number of voters eligible to cast a ballot at the elections is 16,609. Over 2,000 more men than women are eligible for the franchise, the count shows. The number of male voters is given as 9,430 while the number of women is 7,179. The number of Republican men is 5,021, Republican women, 3,994; Democratic men, 4,281; Democratic women, 3,115; No-party men, 125; No-party women, 68; Socialist men, three; Socialist women, one; and Royal Oak women, one.

Gettysburgian In India

Another Adams county soldier is serving his country in far-off India and judging from the photograph he sent his parents it seems like a "League of States" of America's finest.

Russell Harness, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Harness, Steinwehr avenue, is the county's newest arrival in India. His brother, James, in service since February 1942, is in Africa and another brother, William, in service since February of this year, is at Camp Butler, N. C., with a Military Police Escort Guard Company. William has made two trips to Africa since he entered service.

Russell who has been in service since November, 1942, sent the above photograph to his parents from India. In the group are the following: Standing (left): "Tex" Krause, Texas; right, Ed Calvao, Rhode Island; kneeling (left to right): Dick Parsell, Idaho; Ted Gabby, Chicago; Mike Browning, Texas; D. Irvin, Pennsylvania.

Condemnation proceedings by the Federal government against land owned by William I. Shields in the rear of the Eternal Light Peace Memorial, opened in 1941, will be resumed when the original board of viewers will inspect the land involved and conduct a hearing in the National Park office, Gettysburg, at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, October 28.

Notices for the viewing and hearing which have just been issued disclose that a smaller plot of ground now is involved in the proceedings. Two years ago the government sought to take 28 acres but the plot to be viewed October 28 contains only 22.921 acres. A strip of land east of the Reading railroad tracks along land owned by William L. Meals, Esq., has been dropped from the case.

The viewers, who are Charles J. Toot, S. L. Allison and P. S. Orner, will take testimony to determine the amount of compensation to be paid Mr. Shields as owner of the land which is to be taken by the United States for National Park purposes. The first viewing was held in August, 1941, and a hearing was held. It developed at that time that the whole proceeding was complicated by the presence of a spring in the strip east of the railroad tracks which serves the Meals farm buildings. It was indicated then that the government was not specifically interested in that strip of land and might amend the proceedings to eliminate it.

BOMBS BURST, FIRES RAGE—ONLY A TEST

Hundreds were killed and injured, fires raged out of control throughout Adams county, demolition squads rushed to rescue persons buried in bombed houses, medical, fire and police facilities were extended to their utmost.

That was the picture of Adams county in an air raid drawn by civilian defense officials during a state wide control center test Friday evening. Gathered in the centers throughout the county and at the county control center in Gettysburg, the civilian defense officials mapped out their plans to meet the exigencies of a mythical air raid on the county which was part of the

"Y" SECRETARY NEEDED HERE LEADERS TOLD

The greatest need of the Gettysburg YWCA is for a trained secretary to revive interest in Girl Reserve work and the general "Y" program throughout Gettysburg and Adams county. Miss Metta M. Mitchell, national YWCA staff member and first "Y" secretary in Gettysburg, told local association workers during a week-end visit in Gettysburg that ended this morning when she went to Harrisburg.

Conferring with early and current leaders of the Gettysburg "Y" in conferences and at a tea in her honor Sunday afternoon at the association building, Miss Mitchell stressed the work of the international and national YWCA organizations and gave advice on local problems.

Her visit, by coincidence, occurred close to the seventeenth anniversary of the founding of the local organization with Miss Mitchell's help. The founding date was October 22, 1926. Miss Mitchell served as secretary here from 1926 to 1928.

Informal Tea Sunday
Miss Mitchell came here Saturday from Hanover and conferred with "Y" workers Saturday afternoon.

The YWCA building was the scene of an informal tea in her honor Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock with four former presidents, a dozen of the charter members and a number of other early workers of the local "Y" in attendance. Mrs. A. R. Wentz, the current president, presided. Opening devotions were conducted by Mrs. Ralph R. Gresh.

Mrs. William Hersh, the first secretary, read from the records the names of the charter members and Miss Margaret Williams spoke of the early days of the local "Y" and traced its organization to interest of the Acorn club and the late Mrs. Irene Danner Reinwald. She also spoke of early work with girls' groups in the county under the leadership of Miss Mitchell.

Miss Mitchell, now a staff worker of the National War Fund board told of YWCA activities around the world. She said: "Our organization is helping women and girls and all in need regardless of color or creed in more than 53 countries. Much of the funds being raised for war torn countries are placed in the hands of 'Y' secretaries to alleviate suffering and to uphold Christian principles."

Speaking of the local problems and of the need for a trained, full-time secretary, Miss Mitchell pointed out: "If 200 persons in Adams county would give $10 each for this purpose, your purpose would be accomplished."

The Business and Professional Women's club was the hostess group for the social hour that followed the program. Miss Anna Reck and Mrs. William Hersh presided at the tea table which was decorated with chrysanthemums and lighted by candles.

About 60 persons attended including these past presidents of the board: Mrs. B. G. Walter, Mrs. Walter H. Danforth, Mrs. A. A. Hughes and Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh.

The committee in charge included Miss Maude Whiteleather, chairman; Miss Margaret Williams, Mrs. Jessie Easterday, Miss Margaret Howard and Mrs. August Borleis with these three board members assisting: Mrs. Norman Storrick, Mrs. Lila Craig and Mrs. Wilbur Plank.

Miss Whiteleather entertained Miss Mitchell Saturday evening at her home on Hanover street with members of the Acorn club as special guests during the evening.

NEED BOOK 3 TO GET BOOK 4

Clarification of the procedure to be followed by persons in the Harrisburg district who do not have War Ration Book 3 but who desire to obtain War Ration Book 4, was issued today by Frank J. Loftus, acting director of the Harrisburg District OPA office.

OPA regulations specify that Book 4 may be issued only to holders of Ration Book 3, and that the latter must be presented when the applicant registers for the new book next week.

"No application for Book 4 should be made, however, in behalf of anyone who does not now have Book 3," Mr. Loftus said. "Such applications must be made after the end of the current registration period."

"Persons without War Book 3 should go to their Board immediately and secure an application. After it is carefully filled out, the application may be left with the Board or returned to the Board by mail. As soon as possible thereafter both books 3 and 4 will be furnished the applicant. It is expected that in the majority of cases this will be by November 1, the earliest date on which any stamp in Book 4 becomes valid."

Applications for Book 4 are not available at the local rationing boards. These applications will be available at the schoolhouses on the three registration days next week. Applications for Book 4 will not be available at the local rationing boards, until sometime after October 27. The date will be announced later.

Countians Awarded S. S. Service Medals

Fifty-year service medals were awarded to Luther B. Lau, East Berlin, Ernest E. Jacobs, Abbottstown; Mrs. Laura Goss, McKnightstown, and the Rev. William L. Bair, of Gettysburg, at the annual Pennsylvania Sunday school convention at Huntingdon on Friday. Public presentation of the awards will be made by county officers in the near future.

The following delegates from Adams county returned from the convention Friday evening: T. J. Winebrenner, Mrs. Alma Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bair, Hanover, and Mrs. Russell Stoops, of the Second District; the Rev. Ralph Baker, First District; Mrs. Ira M. Henderson and Mrs. Robert Neely, Fairfield, and Mrs. Lloyd Garretson, Biglerville R. D.

Adams county was commended as one of the counties having paid its state assessment in full.

HANSON URGES COUNTIANS TO SHARE IN WAR

"Nor will the end of the war end our responsibility. We must invest now and in the future what we can share to feed the millions who have nowhere to look but to God and to America," Doctor Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college, and a director of the State War Fund organization told solicitors of the Adams County War Fund at a mass meeting Tuesday evening at the YWCA.

The meeting preceded the beginning of a drive to raise $28,770 in the next ten days by the county war fund committee. The drive opened this morning.

The campaign is designated to raise funds for seventeen war-time organizations designed to give assistance to the members of the armed forces and people made destitute by the war in all the Allied countries.

Can Reach Goal
"The goal we have set seems a tremendous task," Doctor Hanson told the group, "but it can be reached." This is one of the strangest wars ever fought—it is a war to determine whether we will live under one philosophy or another; whether we will live as slaves under the domination of a dictator or as free men under the laws of Jesus Christ.

"We are at war against two groups led by madmen. Japan is a strange, plucky country, but it has yielded to leaders without conscience or character. Germany is under a group of men who claim they are supermen and who wish to take Christ out of the world."

"In this war we have our choice of whether we wish to have our lives ripped to pieces by plowshares guided by madmen or whether we wish to risk death in order to save our way of life."

"Share What We Have"
"In this world struggle there are many things we cannot do—but we can, when America needs what we have, give with a smile. We've sent out boys; they are at the ends of the earth and are in God's hands and are doing their duty. We can't share with them the brutality, the pains and the heartaches of the battlefield—but we can share what we have."

A motion picture, "Last Will and Testament of John Smith," was shown. The picture was based on the last 20 minutes of the life of an American aviator shot by the Japanese.

Dean W. E. Tilberg presided at the session. Paul A. Kinsey, chairman of the War Fund Drive, outlined plans for a house-to-house canvass throughout the county starting today. A number of meetings are also scheduled to be held in factories in Adams county, he told the group. At the meetings an attempt will be made to have employees donate one hour's work a week for 12 weeks to the War Fund.

Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler announced methods of sending the money collected to her at the Gettysburg National Bank. Miss Jeanne Spangler will act as alternate depository for the fund during Mrs. Buehler's absences, it was announced.

To Train New R.C. Staff Members
Plans for a staff assistants' course to train volunteers for office and general service for the Red Cross drive was in its second day Thursday chapter of the Red Cross. The work of the staff assistants includes typing, filing, translating, taking dictation, preparing roll call supplies and the like in connection with the Blood Donor service, war fund and other services of the Red Cross.

The first lecture will be given Oct. 28 at 7:30 o'clock at the Hotel Gettysburg and classes will be held on Monday and Thursday evenings until the completion of the course. Mrs. Earl Bowen, chairman of the Volunteer Special Services committee, arranged for the course which will be taught by chapter officials. Those wishing to take the course can call Mrs. Bowen or the county Red Cross office at the court house.

BAGOT ORDERED TO PEN; SETTLE DAMAGE ACTION

William Bagot, of Gettysburg, was sentenced to from one to two years in the Eastern penitentiary and ordered to pay a $5 fine and costs on a serious charge by the county court Monday morning. Another serious charge also brought against Bagot was suspended upon payment of costs.

The commitment was to date from October 4, the court ordered, the day Bagot was placed in the county jail on the charges involving a 14 year-old girl. He had pleaded guilty at that time and had been unable to raise bail.

A settlement of $675.05 in the action in trespass suit brought by Janet, George E. and Carl A. Carey, Jr., by their parents, Carl A. and Marian E. Carey, Franklin township, against the Western Maryland railroad was approved by the court. The trespass suit arose from a collision between a train and a car driven by Mrs. Carey at the Cold Spring road crossing several months ago.

Town Battle Memories
Her family moved into town during the battle of Gettysburg, with neighbors deciding that the outskirts of the borough were too dangerous. With her family she went to what is now the Battlefield hotel to stay during the conflict. Upon their return to their home near town they found it "very dirty, but nothing was destroyed or stolen," Mrs. Homan relates. They had two "spring housecleanings" that year, one before the battle, the other after they had returned.

She recalls vividly the visit of Abraham Lincoln to Gettysburg, November 19, 1863. After the war she married the late John Homan, a butcher here, and they lived for many years on Baltimore street. The last 35 years she lived at the home on the corner of Baltimore and South streets across from her present home. They had no children.

Her family moved west shortly after her marriage and now only one sister, Mrs. Sarah Lightner, Knoxville, Illinois, who is 97, is still living. Four of the eight brothers and sisters lived to be well over 90. The family was scattered into Nebraska, Colorado, Illinois and other parts of the west.

Would Like To Be 100
Never seriously ill, Mrs. Homan never had a doctor attend her until last December and still is in excellent health with the exception of a stiffness in one knee.

Today she was surprised by a birthday dinner prepared for her and Miss Rogers by Mrs. Wolford. The nonagenarian had forgotten that her birthday was so close when interviewed by a reporter for The Gettysburg Times. "Don't you think I've had enough birthdays?" she said with a laugh. "But I would like to have one more besides the one today."

SEEK TO CURB BLACK MARKET
In line with a nation-wide, cooperative campaign by homemakers and merchants to hold down the cost of living and combat "black markets," Adams county residents will be given an opportunity to sign the "Home Front Pledge," when they go to their nearest school house October 25, 26, or 27, to register for War Rationing Book No. 4, the local War Price and Rationing office announced today.

In announcing the campaign, the local office said that pamphlets were also being sent concerning the Home Front Pledge to all applicants for "A" gasoline books giving details of the pledge and stating that the opportunity will be given to sign the pledge at the school houses when registering for the new ration book No. 4.

In the nation-wide drive over ten million people have already signed the pledge, OPA said. The pledge reads: (1) "I will pay no more than top legal prices." (2) "I will accept no rationed goods without giving up ration stamps."

In many communities, merchants, retail associations and chambers of commerce are assisting in the campaign and retailers are pledging that they will neither sell above top legal prices, nor give up rationed goods without collecting stamps.

Former Seminarian Leads Navy Class
Harold W. Steup, Indianapolis, who was a student of the local Lutheran Theological seminary before entering the Navy on March 25, won top honors with a mark of 99.9 in a class of 467 sailors recently graduated from the U. S. Navy Hospital Corps school at San Diego, California.

Pharmacist's mate, third class, Steup is a member of the National Honor Society and has one brother, Lieut. Richard A. Steup, with the Army ordnance department.

Army Officers On Tour Of Field

About 50 officers from the Mid-dietown Air Command school came here Saturday to make a tour and study of the battlefield. Members of the group ranged in rank from second lieutenants to lieutenant colonels.

In command of the contingent is Lt. Col. W. E. Bashore, who was stationed at Camp Colt for a time during the World War I. A resident of Ohio, he is a descendant of former residents of this county.

Break Ground For Locker Plant

The excavation for the foundation of the Gettysburg plant of the Arctic Locker System at the corner of Breckenridge and Franklin streets is being completed and every effort is being made to rush the building to completion in time for use by January 1, it was announced today by V. C. Patterson and H. B. Pownall, company representatives.

The plant will be a one-story brick structure measuring 71 by 40 feet. It will house 600 refrigerated lockers. Ground was broken last Friday.

Town's Oldest Resident 99 Today; Recalls Battle

Mrs. Amanda Homan, 344 Baltimore street, Monday celebrated her 99th birthday.

Gettysburg's oldest resident, her chief pleasure today is watching the passing scene along Baltimore street—a scene which she has watched grow and develop since before the Battle of Gettysburg.

Born October 18, 1844, near town on the Baltimore "pike," she has lived all of her life within a two-mile area along the Baltimore "pike" and Baltimore street. Until Christmas week last year she lived by herself in the Homan property at the corner of Baltimore and South streets. Just before January 1 she moved to the home of Mrs. Albert Wolford where she now lives in an upstairs room with Miss Elizabeth Rogers.

From the bay window of the room she watches and wonders at the growth the town has made since she first knew it long before the Civil war.

One of eight children of the late George and Harriet Wentz Epley, she was born in the old Thomas place, just south of the National cemetery, where once a toll gate protected the "pike from non-paying users. Her father was a shoemaker.

A business district solicitation committee including J. I. Burson, Vernon Corle, Dr. J. Walter Coleman, Frederic Griest, Mares Sherman, Robert Lewis, Henry T. Bream, S. F. Swope, James Shenk and Fred Pfeiffer met this morning with Chairman Paul A. Kinsey and USO County Chairman Dr. W. E. Tilberg, to complete plans for solicitation of business concerns in the western half of the county. A similar committee, headed by Alvin Jones, New Oxford, will seek contributions from business firms in the eastern half of the county.

The business committees began their work Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler was named treasurer for the drive. Mrs. Buehler has been treasurer of the local USO since its organization two years ago.

The $28,770 quota set for the county represents less than $10 for each countyman in the armed forces by the end of this year.

The sum to be raised is 3 1/2 times the amount raised last year by the local USO which secured more than $7,000 in a short drive.

The county's contribution will be divided among 17 organizations providing services for the armed forces or relief for war sufferers. Each person contributing may designate to which organization he cares to give his donation or portion of his gift.

APPEALS FOR NURSES' AIDES

An appeal for more women volunteers to join the Nurses' Aides was made today by Mrs. Elsie Singmaster Lewars, chairman of the Adams County Red Cross chapter.

Three volunteers enrolled for the class which opens Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock under Mrs. Sydney J. Poppa, instructor. Three other prospects are reported. A much larger class is needed, officials declare.

Mrs. Lewars' appeal, timely in every respect, follows:

"In its efforts to secure applicants for the Nurses' Aide course, the Adams County Red Cross chapter for the first time in 23 years of service is facing disappointment, if not failure."

Depleted Staffs
"The staffs of our hospitals are being increasingly depleted by calling nurses overseas and to Army camps. The only possible substitutes are Nurses' Aides."

"The Adams County Red Cross chapter and the Annie M. Warner hospital offer this basic training."

"In addition to serving her country in time of crisis, the Nurses' Aide serves in hospitals, her own community and possibly her own friends and family."

"Our doctors and nurses cannot carry on without help. It hardly seems credible that for the course now opening under an excellent teacher, only six have applied. Such, however, is the case. Can we not do better?"

Forest Service Needs 10 Rodmen

Openings in the Gettysburg area for ten rodmen have been announced by Arthur W. Warman, Civil Service director at the local post office. The vacancies are with the Forest Service and applicants should go to Walter E. Webb, project engineer at the Lee-Meade inn near Gettysburg. Males are desired for the positions for which no experience is necessary.

The positions will last approximately six months. The base pay is $1,440 a year and employees will be required to work 48 hours a week, increasing their annual salary to $1,752. Employees will be allowed $3 a day expenses when working outside Gettysburg, it was stated.

WELFARE GROUP OPENS COURSE; KINSEY ELECTED

Dr. Bertha Paulsen, member of the faculty of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary, introduced the topic, "Youth in a World at War," to be developed in a series of four lecture-discussion sessions to be conducted on succeeding Thursdays at the fall meeting last Thursday evening of the Adams County Welfare committee in Christ Lutheran church.

Dr. Paulsen will conduct the lecture course on the themes, "Youth in the Family," "Youth in School," "Adolescent Conflicts" and "Youth in the Community." The discussion sessions will be open to all who enroll by paying a fee of $1. Twenty enrolled Thursday evening.

At a brief business session which preceded the program Paul A. Kinsey was selected as the new chairman of the Welfare committee on recommendation of the executive committee after the resignation of M. D. DeTar, now of Washington, D. C., had been accepted. Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen, committee vice chairman, conducted the business meeting.

Juvenile Problems
Miss Mary Hobson Jones, Philadelphia, secretary for the Public Charities Association of Pennsylvania, reviewed briefly the history and purposes of the PCA, a statewide organization of citizens formed 30 years ago for the purpose of study, research, community organization and legislation. The county unit was formed in April, 1942. Miss Jones reported on the result of Civil Service reform and parole law fights waged by the PCA and predicted passage in Congress of the Thomas bill for child care as against another proposal for direct Federal control of child care centers. Miss Jones presented Doctor Paulsen.

Doctor Paulsen said she found "disturbing juvenile problems at our own door in Gettysburg," cited national increases in delinquency among girls under 21 years of age.

Problems of War
Predicting that war's repercussions will be serious in the homes of this nation, she directed attention to child problems in homes where the father is dead, missing or disabled. "There is a great need for communities to become aware of the need for action in the present situation and to share their interest and action with the experts. That is the democratic way."

She suggested a number of child delinquency case studies and social novels as supplementary reading for the course she will open next Thursday evening. Miss Jones added to the list.

ROTARY MARKS ANNIVERSARY

The local Rotary club celebrated its 23rd birthday Monday evening with a program of motion pictures showing membership of the club in years between 1925 and 1927 and talks by a number of charter members of the organization.

M. C. Jones first president of the club when it was organized in October 20, 1920; Frederic E. Griest, William Tyson, Dr. Chester N. Gitt and A. B. Plank were among the charter members who spoke briefly of the history of the club. Mr. Plank, who was a special guest at the dinner meeting cut a birthday cake prepared for the celebration. Walter Africa acted as master of ceremonies. The pictures, taken by the late John D. Keith, Esq., were shown by Dr. C. Harold Johnson.

Thirty members attended the session held at the YWCA with the president, Dr. Frederick Tilberg, presiding.

Plan Scrap Drive In Irishtown Area

Members of the Irishtown firm company completed their plans for a special meeting Friday evening for a community-wide salvage campaign next Saturday afternoon evening. Dr. Eugene Elgin, county scrap chairman, attended the meeting.

George Martin was selected a scrap drive captain for the Irishtown company; Raymond Staub, lieutenant; Francis Moore, secretary, and Lester Rider, treasurer. Twenty-two members of the company volunteered to help with the collection and the Rev. John F. O'Donnell rector at Conewago chapel, offered his support for the campaign.

Doctor Elgin will meet with the Hampton firemen this Thursday evening to complete plans for scrap collection in that community.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

The Rev. and Mrs. Nevin I. Frantz, Northampton, announce the birth of a daughter on October 1 in the Haff hospital, Northampton. The baby weighed six and one-half pounds and will be named Carol Leora. The Rev. and Mrs. Frantz formerly lived at Fairfield where he was pastor of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church of the Cashtown charge.

TALLY IN LAST PERIOD GIVES DELONE 7-0 WIN

For three periods in the game here last Friday night it looked as though the Gettysburg Maroons might halt their losing streak with a tie but in the final period Delone Catholic put on a scoring drive that netted a touchdown and a 7-0 victory.

Inclement weather held the crowd to approximately 500.

Although outplayed by the husky Delone gridders throughout, the Maroons put up a gallant battle and made use of several breaks to halt earlier scoring threats.

A heavy mist fell throughout most of the game and fumbles were frequent with Delone suffering mostly from the miscues.

Delone drove 40 yards for its score. Polmer finally plunging through the line from the 2-yard line. H. Noel flipped a pass to Overbaugh for the extra point.

Fumble Costly

Although Delone pushed the Maroons around to amass 12 first downs, the determined Maroons braced time and again when deep in their own territory to stop the threats. Late in the third period Delone marched to the Maroons' 15 only to lose the ball on a fumble when a Maroon player pounced on the ball on the 18.

The game opened with Gettysburg kicking off but the boot was short and fumbled by Delone with Gettysburg recovering at midfield. Dorsey, who time and again kicked beyond the Delone safety man, booted a long one to the Squires' 10. Neither team could open a consistent offense and play was mostly in midfield, thanks to Dorsey's kicking.

Coach Drach's lads started to move late in the second period with Polmer, the best ground-gainer of the evening, W. Noel and Pink bearing the brunt of the attack. Starting from midfield Delone rolled up three straight first downs but the first half whistle halted the threat with the ball on the 10-yard stripe.

Gamble Fails

The Dry-men received the second half kickoff which was returned by Dorsey to the 31. Eight yards were picked up on three plays and then the Maroons gambled on making a first down on their last try but Delone held to take the ball on the 40.

Delone then drove downfield only to have the attack broken up by a fumble giving the Dry-men the ball on the 18.

Early in the fourth period the Maroons fumbled on the 40 and from that point Delone marched uninterrupted downfield for a score. Coach Dry's youngsters put up a gallant stand against their heavier opponents after a first down had been registered on the 5 and it took three line plunges before Polmer crashed through.

The game ended with the Squires having the ball deep in Gettysburg territory due mostly to a 15-yard penalty.

Defense Better

The Maroons defense showed considerable improvement over that of previous games and their showing against the Squires was a bit of a surprise to local fans.

Offensively Gettysburg didn't have a chance. The locals failed to register a single first down and failed on four attempts through the air.

Delone rolled up 12 first downs, completed four of six passes and had one intercepted.

Tonsel, sub back, turned in a bit of nice tackling while Little also was a steady performer defensively. Timbers carried the ball well on the offensive but was given little support from his blockers. The line played better than anticipated and on several occasions showed real strength.

Sparkling Jake Drach's warriors on the offense was Palmer and W. Noel. The entire Squire line showed its strength by holding Gettysburg without a single 10-yard gain.

HANOVER SCRUBS BEAT MAROONS THURSDAY 20-0

Hanover high school's javvy football team rolled over the Gettysburg high reserves in a game played Thursday afternoon at Hanover by a 20-0 score.

Using sweeping end runs to advantage, the Nighthawks kept the locals on the defense throughout and were never in trouble.

The victors scored on a wide end run by D. Markle in the first period. Markle scored on similar plays in the third and fourth quarter.

Failure of efficient blocking on the offense prevented the Maroons making any serious scoring threat. Coach Haehn's lads put up a good defensive game but failed when the Nighthawks swept the ends. Shaner, Geisler and Whittinghill played outstanding games on the defense.

SMALL GAME SEASON OPENS OCTOBER 30

Harrisburg, Oct. 20 (AP)—Pennsylvania hunters who take to field and stream Saturday, Oct. 30, for the start of the small game season will have less time for the sport, more need for the meat, and fewer shells with which to bag it.

As a prelude to the season, raccoon hunting started today in Bradford, Cameron, Clinton, Elk, Lycoming, McKean, Potter, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Tioga and Wayne counties. In all other counties, raccoons may not be shot until after 9 a. m. Saturday, Oct. 30.

Ross Leffler, president of the Game Commission, said, "every indication points toward a better than average crop of rabbits, squirrels, pheasants and other popular farm game," but added: "The heavy work schedule of all the war industries and the shortage of shot gun shells are expected to curtail the amount of time spent afield." He expressed the hope "sufficient shells will be shipped to Pennsylvania dealers to allow a box of shells to hunters who have practically none."

The limits for rabbits and squirrels were increased this year but other limits remain unchanged. Last year the daily and season bag for rabbits was four and 20 and that for squirrels five and 20 but this year hunters may kill five cottontails in one day and 25 a season while squirrel limits are six a day and 24 a season.

The Commission warned Hungarian partridges may be taken only in Cumberland and Franklin counties and that wild turkey hunting is banned in Clarion, Clearfield, Elk, Forest, Jefferson, McKean, Potter, Warren and Westmoreland counties.

No hunting of any kind will be permitted before 9 a. m. on Oct. 30. Thereafter, shooting will be permitted from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 20 (AP)—Graduation of Navy and Marine trainees at Muhlenberg college Sunday will cut 13 men off Coach Al Julian's football squad.

Two of them, Dave Griffith and Lew Yerks, will be kept out of Saturday's game with Franklin and Marshall by injuries. The Mules' unfinished schedule includes games with Bucknell, Atlantic City Naval Station, Swarthmore and Sampson Naval Station.

METTLE OF USC, MINNESOTA AND NAVY GET TEST

By TED MEIER

New York, Oct. 18 (AP)—Just how good are Navy, Minnesota and Southern California? Their games this week against Georgia Tech, Michigan and College of the Pacific should give the answer and help clarify the college football picture.

The Midshipmen, Gophers and Trojans are among the nation's 18 unbeaten and untied teams, but whether they rank with such recognized juggernauts as Notre Dame, Army, Purdue and Pennsylvania still is debated in some quarters.

Their games shape up as the best three in the country since the Irish, Cadets, Boilermakers and Quakers again take the field against opponents who do not rate in their class.

Navy, with Notre Dame lurking around the corner on October 30, faces a real test in Georgia Tech. Notre Dame is the only team that has beaten the Engineers. That was a 55-13 wallop.

Battle of the Unbeaten

Minnesota, too, is on the spot in its battle with Michigan for the little brown jug. Like Georgia Tech, Michigan has lost only one game, that to Notre Dame, 35-12.

Southern California hasn't yielded a point in four games, but the Trojans tangle with an inspired College of the Pacific outfit that may shatter their dreams of a perfect season. It will be a battle of unbeaten teams since Pacific, coached by 81-year-old A. A. Stagg, Sr., upset the Del Monte Pre-Flight eleven, 16-7, on Saturday.

Otherwise Saturday's games went pretty much as expected although Penn State battled Navy even for three quarters before losing, 14-6.

Most of the other leading teams merely had a good workout. Notre Dame crushed Wisconsin, 50-0; Army, held to 13-0 at half time, went on to wallop Columbia, 52-0; Pennsylvania rolled up its biggest score in years in trouncing Lakehurst Naval, 74-6; and Southern California smashed San Francisco, 34-0.

Other Games

Cornell, beaten only by Navy, afforded a mild surprise by whipping Holy Cross by two touchdowns, 20-7; Illinois outscored Pitt in a flurry of touchdowns, 33-25; Rochester humbled Colgate, 14-6; and Villanova rushed over a last period six-pointer to defeat Bucknell, 12-8.

Games carded this week, other than Navy-Georgia Tech; Minnesota-Michigan; and USC-Pacific include:

East: Colgate-Cornell, Penn-Columbia, Army-Yale and Penn State-Maryland.

Midwest: Notre Dame-Illinois, Wisconsin-Indiana, Iowa-Purdue, Northwestern-Ohio State.

SPORT SHORTS

Smith Falls, Ont., Oct. 15 (AP)—Hal Dewey, who played with the Cleveland Barons and Pittsburgh Hornets in the American Hockey league, has enlisted for training with the RCAF. It was learned today.

Chicago, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Chicago Bears will lose two more of their star players to the Navy after Sunday's game with the Phil-Pitt Eagles. Navy bound are Bill Osmanski, the one time Holy Cross terror and Bears' fullback, and End Johnny Siegal, both as lieutenants (jg). Osmanski will go to Great Lakes—and may be invited to play—although no officers are on the team. Siegal will report to Bainbridge (Md) Naval Training Station, where the coach of the Navy squad is Joe Maniaci, also a former Bear.

Ringtown, Pa., Oct. 15 (AP)—Danny Litwiler, St. Louis Cardinals outfielder, hopped from one sport to another on his return from the World Series. He's coaching 35 basketball candidates at Ringtown high school, where he is physical education director. He also coaches baseball and track.

State College, Pa., Oct. 15 (AP)—The "Nittany Lion" that always cavorted on the sidelines at Penn State football games is another war casualty. The school has issued several fruitless calls for a volunteer to don the lion costume and do his stuff.

Lewisburg, Pa., Oct. 15 (AP)—John J. Sitarsky, who came to Bucknell university this year as head football coach, and Henry N. Peters, the Blons trainer, have volunteered for service in the armed forces. J. Ellwood (Woody) Ludwig, line coach, is regarded as Sitarsky's probable successor.

State College, Pa., Oct. 20 (AP)—Pennsylvania State college will use the "V" formation for the first time in its football contest with the University of Maryland at College Park, Maryland, Saturday. Coach Bob Higgins said his team will be at full strength.

Philadelphia, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Phillies have gone to the Dodgers again for help in their rebuilding program. Ted McGrew, chief scout

Intramural Touch Football Program

In the absence of a varsity sports program this year Gettysburg college has adopted a wide intra-mural schedule which opened this week with ten-man touch football games. With insufficient manpower for inter-collegiate sports competition the athletic department has decided to provide the widest sports program possible for the men remaining on the campus. Later in the year it is expected that basketball, volleyball, mushball and track will be taken up on the intramural basis with teams from the various dormitories competing.

IRISH NOT YET GREAT ELEVEN ASSERTS LEAHY

Chicago, Oct. 18 (AP)—Well, Mr. Leahy, what have you to say about Notre Dame?

Frank: "It wouldn't be wise on my part to admit that we've got a great team yet—one that would compare with the great Rockne teams, for instance. A team with the stamp of greatness must be a team that has shown the spirit and fight to come from behind to win."

But, Mr. Leahy, your team hasn't had a chance to prove its greatness by coming from behind.

Frank: "Ha, ha, that's right, but don't make me laugh. We'll be coming plenty, let alone even coming on to win. We must play Illinois, Navy, Army, Northwestern, Iowa, Seawhaws and Great Lakes—remember?"

You can't argue against the record, Mr. Leahy, Notre Dame is clicking. Why?

"Our entire starting lineup, with the exception of Rykovich, was with us last year."

"Angelo Bertelli's generalship has been above reproach, and he, probably more than any other player, has done the most for our improvement. Last year he was relieved of signal calling because of his complex of never calling a play for himself. That move made Bert take a personal inventory, with the result that this year he is a remarkably confident quarterback."

"But we'll still be lucky if we don't lose three or four games."

RED LION AND CANNERS PLAY SCORELESS TIE

Biglerville and Red Lion high schools played to a scoreless tie in a Lower Susquehanna conference football game Saturday afternoon at Red Lion.

Honors were about even during the afternoon with neither team producing a real scoring threat.

During the first period Red Lion kept the Canners back in their own territory due mostly to a strong wind which swept the field. Just the reverse was true when Coach Smith's boys took advantage of the wind after changing positions in the second period.

Game Halted

A heavy downpour in the third period forced the game to be called for five minutes. Thereafter, the teams battled in a sea of mud.

Biglerville's best scoring opportunity came in the third period when Heller intercepted a pass and started downfield with two men for interference. However, the tricky underfooting caused one blocker to slip and a Red Lion player slipped through a spill Heller on the Red Lion 35-yard stripe after he had dashed 15 yards.

The Canners will play West York on the latter's field Friday.

SCHOOLBOY GRID TEAMS TO PLAY CRUCIAL GAMES

By LEE V. KEBACH

Philadelphia, Oct. 21 (AP)—The 1943 scholastic football season swings into the second half of its schedule this week-end with comparatively few schools remaining undefeated, but fights for the various diadems continuing unabated.

Unbeaten clubs clash in several of the circuits with the results likely to have a decided bearing on the final standings, while in others the current leaders are either side-tracking loop play or meeting less formidable adversaries.

The Big 15 conference will provide one of the state's leading thrills Saturday when Harrisburg's John Harris, which tops the circuit, travels to Williamsport, holders of fourth place. Both elevens are undefeated, and Billtown can take first place by winning.

Huntingdon, which has entrenched itself as the western conference leader, should have little trouble at Carlisle. Carlisle, victors in five straight games and unbeaten this year, will be meeting its first real test in Hershey, likewise unbeaten but tied by Mechanicsburg.

Records at Stake

The Wyoming Valley conference also will present a header Saturday when two traditional rivals—Wilkes-Barre Meyers and Hanover township—both with perfect records, clash on the latter's turf. Meyers, defending champ, replaced Plymouth as loop leader after the two played a scoreless tie last week. Hanover is in fourth slot, but a victory should give it enough points to go out in front.

Lansford, the Southern division leader of the Eastern conference, entertains Lebanon Saturday in a non-circuit fust, but second place Kulpmont, although favored to win, should receive plenty of opposition on its home field Saturday from Mt. Carmel township.

Plymouth, one of several schools to participate in both the Wyoming conference and the Northern division of the Eastern circuit, is leading the latter, but will do battle Saturday in the Wyoming setup. Therefore, the spotlight will shine at Dunmore, undefeated occupant of second place, which will play Scranton Tech.

The title in the Southern conference may be decided Friday night when the only two clubs with unblemished records—Carlisle and Hershey—meet on the former's field.

Other conference games are: Friday—Mechanicsburg at Waynesboro; Saturday—Gettysburg at Chambersburg.

The remainder of the Big 15 circuit will pair off as follows: Friday—Pottsville at Allentown and Hazleton at Sunbury; Saturday—Bethlehem at Easton, Steelton at Lancaster and Reading at York. In two non-loop tilts Saturday, Shamokin will play at Mahanoy City and William Penn will meet its intra-city rival, Harrisburg Catholic.

The Western conference: Tonight—Fernside at Conemaugh; Friday—Clearfield at Tyrone, Roaring Spring at Hollidaysburg; State College at Philipsburg, Conemaugh township at Shade township and Ebensburg at Somerset; Saturday—Saxton at Williamsburg, Lewistown at Lock Haven, Crescon at Bellwood and Portage at Adams township.

Wyoming Valley: Saturday—Berwick at Wilkes-Barre Coughlin, Nanticoke at Larksville, Wilkes-Barre G.A.R. at Plymouth and Plains at Kingston.

Eastern: Friday—Ashland at Minersville, Coal township at Coaldale, Shenandoah at Mt. Carmel and Tamaqua at Nesquehoning; Saturday—West Mahanoy township at Blythe township, Carbondale at Scranton Central, Edwardsville at Luzerne and Mt. Carmel township at Kulpmont.

BASORA WHIPS FRITZIE ZIVIC

(By the Associated Press)

The week-end brought some heavy firing on Pennsylvania scholastic football fields, but failed to upset the leaders of two conferences.

Huntingdon increased its point total to 163 by conquering Conemaugh 26 to 7, in a Western conference feature. Philipsburg took over second place by defeating Tyrone 7 to 6. Nanty Glo made its first appearance among the leaders, slipping into seventh place.

John Harris of Harrisburg retained its position at the head of the pack in the big 15 by halting a powerful York eleven 6 to 0. However, its point total slumped from 2,000 to 333, which left it 22 points ahead of Steelton. The latter outfit went into the runner-up spot though it was held to a tie by William Penn, also of Harrisburg.

The standings, announced by officials:

Big Fifteen

MAROONS MEET CHAMBERSBURG ON SATURDAY

Crucial games in the Southern Pennsylvania football conference are listed this week, two being scheduled for tonight and another for Saturday afternoon.

By virtue of Chambersburg high's stunning 7-6 decision over the hitherto unbeaten Hanover Nighthawks last Friday, the race was thrown open with Carlisle, Hanover, Hershey, Chambersburg and Mechanicsburg having excellent chances of stepping in for top honors. Only Gettysburg and Waynesboro are definitely out.

Coach Mel Dry's hapless Gettysburg high eleven will take on the Trojans at Chambersburg Saturday afternoon. The Maroons are still hoping to pull a surprise and may be able to do it in their only afternoon game of the season.

A game of considerable interest to followers of the schoolboy circuit will be the Hershey-Carlisle tilt at Carlisle. Carlisle, victors in five straight games and unbeaten this year, will be meeting its first real test in Hershey, likewise unbeaten but tied by Mechanicsburg.

Waynesboro will be host to Mechanicsburg this evening and will probably fall prey to the invaders. Hanover will be idle in league play, meeting Columbia in a non-conference game at Hanover tonight.

BEARS MAY FACE REDSKINS AGAIN FOR PRO TITLE

Chicago, Oct. 18 (AP)—The Chicago Bears, growing to themselves since last year for allowing Washington to win the 1942 National football league championship, may get another crack at the Redskins for the pro crown.

The Bears and Redskins remained the only unbeaten teams in their respective divisions after yesterday's sessions.

The Phil-Pitt combine, the East's "surprise team," rode into Chicago with an undefeated league record of two victories. But the Eagles were smashed 48-21 by the Bears. Sid Luckman pitched three touchdowns, Dante Magnani scampere 96 yards with a kickoff and Harry Clark raced 81 more with a recovered fumble.

Baugh Connects

Meanwhile, Washington rolled up its second straight win with a stunning 33-7 triumph over the Green Bay Packers, the team which earlier had held the Bears to a 21-21 tie. Slinging Sammy Baugh flicked passes of 14, 8, 7 and 5 yards for touchdowns and Andy Parks made another on a short plunge which finished off an 80-yard parade.

Baugh raised his total to seven touchdowns by passing in two games, while Luckman boosted his to nine in four.

In this Sunday's main attraction, Green Bay will go to Detroit. The Chicago Cardinals will be at Washington, Brooklyn at the Bears and Phil-Pitt at New York.

New York yesterday trounced Brooklyn 20-0.

The Detroit Lions bounced back from two straight lunkings to beat the hapless Cardinals 7-0 on Harry Hopps' 70-yard run with Frankie Sinkwich's screen pass in the third period.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

QUATRANS
RIGHT
However furious the blast
Of tyrant dynamite
There is no power that can outlast
The strength of being right.

ALL THAT'S NEEDED
When red and gold deck vine and tree,
This time of year
Men see how fair this world would be
If peace were here.

THE KILLER FROST
Soon, where are blossoms red and white,
With furious breath
The Killer Frost will come at night
To scatter death.

CANNING TIME
Homeward the husband happily comes
(And isn't it nice?)
To odors of apples and peaches and plums
And pickles and spice!

THE PIONEER
This is the lot of the pioneer:
He must keep his faith when his fellows sneer.

He must follow his vision, brave of heart,
And go it alone when his friends depart.

There are kinfolks many whom he must shun
Lest they break his will with:
"It can't be done!"

He must deafen his ears and blind his eyes
To the few whom his world believes all-wise.

For not often a wise man further looks
Than the final word in the newest books.

And books are just with what's done concerned,
With seldom a word of what may be learned.

Thus, he who is bound for a better way
Must cope with discouragement, night and day.

And he who would venture for triumphs new Leads a lonely life and a hard one, too!

THE BANKER'S WIFE

My Nellie thinks the happiest life
Must be to be a banker's wife
Who wears a necklace round her throat,
And has a lovely ermine coat,
And at the social and the teas
Is one all others strive to please.
As if their men gave this advice:
"Remember now, to her be nice!"

"Remember now, when her you meet
Be smiling, gracious and discreet.
If you are nice as you can be
Her husband may be nice to me.
Be sure to praise her gown and hat,
He may extend my loan for that,
And though to snub her you're inclined,
For goodness sake, don't speak your mind!"

And yet, perhaps the banker's wife
May have her share of fretful strife
For if, for her, he wears the crown
He shows the customers in town
And keeps his heart as cold to her
She really needs that coat of fur!
All through the years she's doomed to Condemned to hear his icy: "No!"

I wonder if from her he gets
A statement of her little debts
Which, should she falsify, were crime,
Before he'll let her have a dime?

If so, then let her wish must be
That she had wed some fool like me
Who, married forty years or so,
Has found no way of saying "No!"

BUY BONDS
Bonds to keep our country free!
Why count their cost?
What good would all our money be
Were freedom lost?

Flashes Of Life

FLAT WORK

York, Pa. (AP)—John Powell, operator of the city road roller, said a woman waited for him to come along and then dumped two buckets of tin cans in front of his machine.

She explained she was tired of flattening cans for salvage with her feet.

LOLLIPOP TECHNIQUE

Los Angeles (AP)—"Wanted—boy to sample our pies on Saturday and Sunday," says a sign in a restaurant window, adding, in smaller type:

"(and to carry a few dishes)."

MERE SUSPICION

Los Angeles (AP)—A pedestrian yelled "yippe-e-e" and tossed a handful of dollar bills into the air, then repeated the operation twice while onlookers scrambled for the greenbacks.

At police headquarters, where the man was questioned, he had only a few dollars left of his $150. He was booked on suspicion of drunkenness.

TIMING

Lamar, Mo. (AP)—Carl Moore stopped at an insurance office to insure his newly-purchased car.

"Come on, it's raining," he said to the agent after the policy had been written. "I'll give you a ride home."

He didn't though. His car had just been stolen.

USUAL PREPARATION

Salt Lake City (AP)—City commissioners ordered 30,000 aspirin tablets on primary election day.

They weren't for defeated candidates—just a routine Board of Health order.

MUSICAL LANDSLIDE

Allentown, Pa. (AP)—An Allentown newspaper said Marines at Cherry Point, N. C. needed two pianos.

Residents responded with 19 pianos, a phonograph and two juke boxes.

Marine Capt. Andrew Dutch messaged:

"Please, no more pianos."

FIRE-PROOF COAL

New York, (AP)—A certain Brooklyn coal dealer is not expected to quote Chief District OPA Attorney Edward L. Coffey in advertising its product.

Coffey complained in federal court that the dealer sold coal that not only failed to burn but "would even extinguish any fire to which it was added."

The court issued a cease and desist order against the dealer.

DOUBLE TROUBLE FOR GRANDMA

New York, (AP)—Patrolman Charles Suckow testified he tapped a 55-year-old Brooklyn woman's telephone line and heard this conversation:

"Is grandma there?"
"Yes, this is grandma."
"Well, I want to bet $2 on the daily double at Jamaica."
Magistrate John F. X. Masterson held the woman in $500 bail pending trial on a bookmaking charge.

Yes, the daily double won, and paid $1820.

BUTTERED ROMANCE

McKeesport, Pa. (AP)—Cupid doesn't always get his man with bow and arrow; this time he used a pound of butter.

Tired out waiting in a butter line several months ago, Margaret Wilson fainted.

Rudy Munas, manager of the store, carried her out of the crowd, revived her and asked for a date. And now they are married.

HE LOSES $131

Jefferson City, Mo. (AP)—Sheriff Harry Mackey officially released a prisoner recently—and it cost him $131, he reported glumly.

For that amount, kept in the sheriff's desk at the jail for another prisoner, also vanished.

The sheriff made up the loss with a personal check.

GOOD EARTH

Arkansas City, Kas. (AP)—Marine Lieutenant James Fleming, stationed in the South Pacific, told the folks in a recent letter what he would like most to see.

So one Christmas gift mailed him by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fleming is a can of that "good old Kansas dirt."

NO SIESTA

Indianapolis, Ga. (AP)—When Pvt. Lela Murray's alarm clock went off at 2:10 a. m., all the WACS in the barracks turned out—and then turned in again.

Pvt. Mildred Williams had set the clock to wake her after an afternoon nap, and forgot to change it back.

IF YOU CAN'T READ
Hollywood (AP)—Comes now the chanting mail box—to aid the drive to include return-address zone numbers on all letters.

Postmaster Mary D. Briggs has had a box equipped with a recording device. Just press a button and a voice calls out the zone number at that location.

Others are to be placed throughout Hollywood and Los Angeles.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:
I am writing to let you know that my address has changed again.

The weather up here is very cool this morning. We had a real cold night. It froze a little where it was wet. We had a heavy rain last night. I guess old man winter is getting ready to set in up here.

I am really glad to receive your paper. It is just like a letter from home and often times it is better than a letter from home.

I find out where a lot of the boys are stationed but could not find out from any other source.

So you see that your paper is a lot of help in catching up with my friends that I have in the service.

I thank you for your paper and remain,

Yours truly,
PVT. EARL L. KIME,
Bat. C, 22nd C. A. Detached,
Kittery Point, Maine

Dear Sir:
Just a few lines to let you know my new change of address.

Right now I am waiting to be sent out to some hospital as a physical instructor in a convalescent camp for the wounded soldiers. It will be my job to recondition them by physical training, recreation, etc.

I have just completed my schooling and we took our final examinations last Friday. We just got our marks from Washington and I was one of the lucky ones to pass. Sixty-seven of us passed out of a class of one hundred and ninety-seven.

We had classes under Dr. McClay of the University of Iowa and many other noted college professors. It was a very interesting course and we certainly learned a great deal.

Thanks for sending me the paper and looking forward to a speedy victory and peace. I remain,

Sincerely yours,
Pfc. Percell "Bud" Ecker
Co. D, 32nd Bn.
1st Platoon,
Camp Grant, Illinois.

Dear Sir:
May I take this long delayed opportunity to express my appreciation for the Service Edition of The Gettysburg Times which I receive regularly and I assure you, look forward to eagerly.

For two long weeks I have been "deep in the heart of Texas." Needless to say, we are exceedingly busy. Our day begins at 5:45 (when we are rudely awakened by the inevitable whistle) and ends at 9:30 with lights out if one is wise or, more generally at 11 (bedcheck).

News from home is vitally important to me as it is to everyone in the service, so for sending me The Times may I again say thank you.

Sincerely,
WALTER E. CASKEY
Co. "C", 52nd Med. Tng Bn.
Camp Berkeley, Texas

Dear Sir:
At this writing I have just completed my freshman year in this, Uncle Sam's Navy.

I wish to take this opportunity to convey to you my sincere appreciation of your efforts in getting to me my copy of the "Times" each week. I fully realize the monumental task it is to keep track of the fellows in the service. In a short time we've more addresses than one would think possible. For me, my paper has reached me at all addresses promptly.

To pen just how much this issue means to me, and I know all the fellows, isn't easy to put on paper. As you know mail call receives priority plus with all of us. When the "Times" is in the mail, it's a bit like walking down Baltimore street again, sitting at a familiar fountain, working at a not-forgotten desk, being with old friends again.

All the news down to the smallest footnote is read.

It is good to read of the record being established by the fellows from throughout the county.

Future of Town
To me, my chief news interests are those of Gettysburg as a whole. The article on civic affairs, Gettysburg's war problems, their effect on the home town, and what is being done to meet them. While this war won't be over soon I am interested in what is in store for post-war Gettysburg. What ideas are current in the way of planning? Things will be greatly changed when this is over. I wonder if it will not—or could not—serve as an opportunity for Gettysburg to become a better and more active community.

This perhaps sounds serious. It is serious. People, places and customs are undergoing drastic changes. I'd like to see Gettysburg become a more active and progressive community than it has ever been known to be.

I understand Gettysburg has recently been visited by high dignitaries. Gettysburg can become as much a part of the future as we are of the past. It remains for us to plan it so.

Events out here have been pretty good reading recently, as I believe you will agree, but there is a lot to be done. A long road ahead.

We're kept pretty busy. What do you? Well it would not make good reading for the Mikado.

We have our recreations, too. A buddy and I have been going in for tennis in a big way, lately. So far I've ended-up by having the pants beat off me. I'll have to put a stop to that. Incidentally my buddy is from California—Hollywood no less.

It is time this sailor shoved off.

This letter has been addressed—"Gettysburg Times"—but I want to say, "Thanks" to those in the front office who check the addresses, those who write and edit the news items, those in the composing room, and those in the mailing room who get the paper off to us.

Sincerely,
WILLIAM Y. FLECK RM 3-C

Dear Sir:
Just dropping a few lines to tell you I have transferred to another squadron here at Gulfport Field. I am now in the 58th Mess Squadron and am learning to be a butcher.

This is sure a great life. You sure do get a lot of different jobs to do. I want to thank everybody who makes it possible for all us boys in the service to receive The Times paper free. It sure does build up the morale when you see where all the boys at home are stationed. I can see where all my friends are and what is going on in good old Adams county. It will be a great day when all of us boys get home again.

So again I want to thank you for The Times paper. We are doing a swell job here on Gulfport Field training airplane mechanics and also giving basic training to the new selectees coming in the Army. So we are doing our part to keep 'em flying.

Yours truly,
PVT. FRANCIS I. WEAVER
58th Mess Squadron
Gulfport Field, Mississippi

Dear Sir:
Just a few lines to thank you for sending me the paper each week and to give you my change in address.

I have just been transferred from Camp Grant, Illinois to the Finney General Hospital in Thomasville, Georgia.

As you know, I was taking a course at Camp Grant to become a physical instructor in the army's new reconditioning and rehabilitation program. At the end of our schooling we were given an examination and 67 of us passed the course out of the 193 who took it. I have now been sent here to the Finney General Hospital in Thomasville, Georgia, as a physical instructor. It will be my job to return these men to duty or civilian life in the best physical condition possible, through exercises, games, hiking and all other forms of recreation. It will also be my job to give them evening entertainment, such as movies, singing, plays, etc.

Before leaving Camp Grant, I received word from the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, that I was picked as first string catcher on the post's all-star baseball team and received a gold baseball as a reward.

Again I wish to thank you for sending me the Servicemen's edition of The Times each week.

Sincerely yours,
Pfc. Percell Ecker,
Medical Detachment,
Finney General Hospital
Thomasville, Georgia

Dear Sir:
With many apologies, I at last sit down to write and thank you and The Times for the many fine copies of my home town newspaper. As many of my buddies do, I find it of great interest and help in keeping track of friends and remaining in touch with doings around home. Keep up the fine work, for we all appreciate it.

I was pleased to note in the Service edition of a week ago, that my new address had been acquired, and appreciated your publication of same. I'm stationed here at the University of Minnesota for some graduate work in Chemical engineering, under the Army Specialist training program. I have plenty of studying to do, but the college atmosphere provides a pleasant change from the routine of an army camp. I can assure you that the North is a pleasant change after five months in Alabama.

Since here, I've, on several occasions, enjoyed seeing a big ten football game. Minnesota has a quite good team this year and gives most interesting performance. This past Saturday, I enjoyed a hard-fought battle between Minnesota and Camp Grant, a very powerful army team. It was one of those games where the crowd is often on its feet, with the "army" team being stopped solidly on the one yard line.

Well, I must say adieu, and be off to class. With repeated thanks for The Times, I remain a true Gettysburgian.

Sincerely,
Pfc. Wm. D. Rice,
Sanford Hall,
U. of Minn.,
Minneapolis, Minn.

FORMER LOCAL PASTOR WRITES FROM HAWAII

Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, professor of Liturgics at the Lutheran Theological Seminary, received an interesting letter from Rev. Spencer W. Augst, former pastor of St. James Lutheran church, now serving as a Chaplain at the 75th Station hospital, in Hawaii. Rev. Mr. Augst, who holds the rank of First Lieutenant, wrote as follows:

"Your letter reached me just before we changed our location and I have waited until I have become acquainted and adjusted to my new surroundings before I wrote to you. We are still in the Hawaiian Department. We now have charge of a regular hospital and our unit is working together. Before, we had a convalescent hospital which permitted most of our officers, nurses and enlisted men to work in other places wherever they were needed.

"Besides visiting the patients in the hospital, I have been asked to visit the various units in this part of the island which are not served by a chaplain. This gives me a variety in my duties and I have the privilege of the experience of the Chaplains who work among field troops all the time. My primary duty in my duties and I have the have planned to spend several evenings each week with the other units. I give the telephone number of the unit which I will be visiting to the operator, so that he can contact me in case of an emergency and I can be here within 20 minutes, at the most, from any one.

Sunday Services
"On Sunday I have a service in a Japanese Christian church as well as one here in a cottage that has been equipped as a chapel. There is a small congregation of Christian Japanese but about three-quarters of the attendance is service men from the units stationed in that vicinity. I have quite a number of men from units in the vicinity of the hospital who attend this service in the chapel. If it will be permitted by Army regulations, I will teach a Week Day school there. The children are dismissed from school for religious instruction on Tuesday mornings—the 3rd, 4th and 5th grades for one hour and the other grades for the following hour. The chaplains who have served this congregation in the past have conducted the school, so I am hoping that my C. O. will not object. If I don't watch out, I will be going from one place to another as much as you do. I know you enjoy it and so do I. The busier I am the better I will like it.

"I am expecting that the District will give me a "jeep" to get to the various units. As far as my work in the hospital is concerned, there is no need of a vehicle as you know. The other day a Chaplain of a large unit called me and asked me to consider holding a special Lutheran communion

Good Old Cupid

Butler, Pa. (AP) — "Cupid takes care of his own," says Pvt. Walter F. Bowman of Waynesburg. And he has $50 to prove it.

Bowman had the money in an envelope in his pocket to buy an engagement ring. He missed it in Pittsburgh and could last remember having it in Sigmund Nast's clothing store here. Bowman boarded a bus, hurried back, found Nast at his home, and persuaded him to reopen the store.

Sure enough, there was the money, still in the envelope, lying on a table.

FIND "SHORT SNORTER" BILL

Short snorter bills are reputed world travelers but one of them, lost by an army officer in Gettysburg in July has finally turned up again—still in Gettysburg.

Last summer Lt. William P. Halvorsen, stationed at Orlando, Florida, was visiting here when he lost his pocketbook in a restaurant. Included among the papers and money in the wallet was a short snorter bill with signatures of pilots and army men gathered from Ireland to Trinidad. Friends here loaned the officer money to return to his camp but could not replace the missing papers or the bill.

On Monday Mrs. Gladys Kelley received some money for deposit at the Gettysburg National bank. Noticing a bill that seemed to be mutilated she placed it aside for further scrutiny later. Late Monday she found time to look at the bill and thought it was the lost short snorter bill about which she had read earlier in the summer in The Gettysburg Times. Other bank employees confirmed it and the local friends of Lieut. Halvorsen were notified.

The bill is now on its way back to the flying lieutenant. Nothing has as yet been seen of the wallet and other papers and money contained in it.

Just A Reminder

For the benefit of those fellows in the service who have not been informed of the Army and Post Office ruling we are not permitted to send The Gettysburg Times to you, with our compliments, after you leave this country... unless, someone, other than ourselves, orders and pays for it in advance.

It sounds like a strange ruling but it happens to be just that. We cannot send our paper to you FREE after you leave this country. If your parents, wife, brother, sister, sweetheart or a friend orders it and pays the subscription price in advance, or if you do so, then we are permitted to mail it to you.

We felt that this information should be conveyed again to you in order that you have time to make arrangements to have the paper sent to you if and when you are sent to overseas duty.

Many of the boys in Africa, Sicily, England, Hawaii and other foreign bases are receiving The Times. Some ordered the paper before they left while others are receiving it with the compliments of their parents or a friend.

So, if you want to continue to receive The Times after you leave this country we'd suggest that you make arrangements now.

We really are sorry we cannot do it ourselves but the Army and the Post Office department just won't let us.

Good luck,

Paul L. Roy.

County Apple Crop Is Placed At 1,250,000 Bushels; Less Than '42

The drought, last winter's freezing temperatures and extremely bad conditions during the blossom season this spring combined to cut Adams county's apple production to an estimated 40 per cent of a normal crop—or approximately 1,250,000 bushels, a survey of fruit growers, canners, processors and others revealed today.

Estimates of the crop ranged from 25 per cent to 50 per cent of a normal yield based on the average production during the last ten years. Consensus of the varying opinions agreed with the estimate of County Agent M. T. Hartman that this year's crop is about 40 per cent of the average.

That figure compares with the 43 per cent crop estimated for the state by the Federal State Crop reporting service of the State Department of Agriculture.

Freezing Was Costly
Fifty per cent of the crop was wiped out by the cold weather which froze many trees and the high cold winds and wet weather this spring which wiped out much of the blossom as it appeared on the trees.

Earlier this year fruit experts looked forward to a 50 per cent crop and as one crop reporter declared today, "we had the apples to make a half a crop." But the extra 10 per cent was caused by the extremely dry weather during the summer which cut the size of the apples and caused a decrease in the total number of bushels produced.

Absent this year were the hundreds of trucks hauling apples from Adams county which usually rumble through the apple section from the beginning until the end of October and sometimes continue on into November.

Shortage General
There were too few apples to send many away to markets and the small size forced most of the apples into the processing plants under a federal regulation which stated that all apples under U. S. 1's and under 2 1/2 inches must go to processors. Some "black marketing" was found, but for the most part growers responded to the urging of processors and the government that the apples be turned over to the canners to be made into products to be used for the armed forces.

No particular section of the county could be selected as hardest hit by the apple shortage.

Production was extremely spotty with orchards to be found throughout the county that had no better than one-fifth of a crop while sprinkled here and there were orchards with nearly normal production.

Some Growers Lost Money
Despite higher prices for the fruit, some orchards lost money with cost of handling the fruit reaching an all time high this year with growers paying up to 20 cents a bushel to pickers, as compared with nine and eleven cents a year ago.

With other costs besides the pickers also higher than usual the 50 cents a pound on packed fruit was too low to give the grower any profit if his crop was extremely low and spotty. The ceiling price came to about $2.70 a bushel.

Picking of the crop for the most part has been completed, with even the drops cleaned out of most orchards in the county. Only a few orchards have any apples remaining on the trees and those few expect to complete their work in the next few days.

That condition also was state wide. The continued dry weather and killing frosts in some sections lowered the crop prospects and rushed the harvest of commercial apples in Pennsylvania, according to the Federal-State reporting service.

Prospects on September 1 were for a total commercial apple crop of 6,110,000 bushels but by October parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McClell.

Private Willie Bierly is spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bierly. Pvt. Bierly is stationed at a camp in California.

Need Food Points For Tongue Says OPA

The OPA has ruled that ration points are required to buy all varieties of tongue, and no types of this meat may be sold point-free.

Attention was drawn to this fact by OPA because some consumers apparently believe tongue may be purchased without ration points. This misunderstanding is probably due to the fact that beef "long-cut" tongue was removed from the current table of consumer point values for rationed meats.

"Long-cut" beef tongue, OPA explained, was removed from the consumer table as it is an untrimmed type which is not sold at retail. It is still listed, however, on the table of trade point values, at five points a pound.

The types of tongue that consumers buy are listed on the October consumer table of point values as follows: Beef tongue (short cut) six points; veal tongue three points, lamb tongue three points, pork tongue three points.

Here And There News Collected At Random

That conquered people might regain their freedom.

That millions of starving men, women and children, defenseless and helpless under the iron heel of subjugation of a brutal aggressor, might be fed and clothed and given the opportunity to fight for their homes and homeland.

That Allied prisoners of war, perhaps some of our own countrymen, may be supplied with the bare necessities to keep them alive. . . .

These are only a very few of the objectives of the National War fund campaign that gets under way in Adams county Wednesday.

The goal here is $28,000 to be divided among seventeen war-created agencies.

In the wake of the tremendously successful Third War Bond drive when Adams countyans purchased more than two million, two hundred thousand dollars of war bonds, it may not seem especially timely to conduct the National War Fund campaign at this time. But time has no place in the consideration of human life, pain and suffering. Death stalks through the shackled millions without consideration of Time. Hence, Time in this campaign is the essence of the milk of human kindness. . . . the sole appeal of this worthwhile and pertinent cause.

In this campaign we are asked to donate $28,770.13 to help seventeen organizations carry on their work to relieve those in distress. . . . who are unable to help themselves. You are asked to give as much as you can to feed and clothe these poor, long suffering people. . . . to help provide medicine to keep them alive. . . . provide seeds that they may plant and harvest sorely needed foodstuff. . . . relieve the pain and suffering of our own men who are prisoners of war. . . . and countless other objectives.

Here are the organizations that will share in your donation: USO; United Seamen's Service; War Prisoners' Aid; British Relief; Belgian Relief; China Relief; Czechoslovak Relief; Dutch Relief; French Relief; Luxembourg Relief; Norwegian Relief; Polish Relief; Russian Relief; U. S. Care of European Children and Refugee Relief trusts.

These seventeen agencies have the leadership, the experience and the facilities to do well what the American people will want them to do. Their programs are practical, free from duplication and flexible enough to meet the changing needs of war. Their budgets are modest and subject to periodic review both by consulting experts in Washington and by the budget committee of the National War Fund.

For instance: The USO provides the "home away from home" for America's own fighting men from Alaska to Brazil, from Newfoundland to Hawaii and all around the world wherever our men are stationed. The War Prisoners' Aid provides educational, spiritual and recreational service in prison camps, relieves the monotony of stagnant idleness. The Russian War Relief provides chiefly medical supplies and clothing.

The money we give to the United China Relief tells the Chinese people in a practical way that generous Americans are their friends.

The United Seamen's Service carries aid direct to the merchant sailors who are carrying men and munitions and food through U-boat lanes to our forces overseas.
